1867 Inward letters Resident Magistrates Court 28 February 1867

A letter of complaint written by Joseph Graham regarding the overcharge of accounts received by him for Joseph Graham V Mr C De Thierry Clerk and Interpreter at Raglan. One account included Expenses of Witnesses and included C De Thierry - 1 day - 5 shillings. (76/188)

A Raglan Magistrate letter of reply from R O Stewart includes information that he requested Charles De Thierry to amend the account. There were 2 cases Graham V De Thierry in which he paid the costs and De Thierry V Graham in which he paid the costs. When Charles wrote out the bill he included costs from both court cases including wages for witnesses which included Wetini (female) and C de Thierry Junr but they were not material witnesses. Mr Stewart thought it possible that this was a mistake by Charles De Thierry. It was also noted that Charles employed his own son as a constable charging for his services without the knowledge of Mr Stewart. "I told Mr De Thierry that it was exceedingly bad taste in him as Clerk of the Court in a case where he was a party to charge for his son's service of subpoenas and I think that his whole conduct in the transaction has been exceedingly reprehensible. I have already written to the Commissioner Mackey on this matter"

The Government and Maoris however his claims and the old Baron subsequently brought out an invention for cleaning flax in Auckland. The son whose death is announced assumed the title of Baron when his father died. The commanders of the French men-of-war, which touched at Auckland in the olds days, had orders from the French Government to pay marks of respect to the first Baron. The son leaves a widow in Auckland and several members of his family reside in the Auckland district. His age was 82 years.
