Evening Post newspaper 27 August 1895

The District Coroner (Mr Ashcroft) held an inquest at the Upper Hutt yesterday upon the body of the lad Herbert Perkins, who met his death while out shooting on Sunday afternoon. The boy was 14 years of age, was an orphan, and was in the charge of a distant relative named

Joseph Bowyer. Bowyer stated that the gun with which the boy was shot belonged to him, and was kept in an outhouse. Deceased, however, had no right to take the gun. It was not fit to use, a screw being missing from the hammer, and the trigger being light in the pull. The gun would go off at half-cock as easily as at full-cock. The boy had been cautioned not to use it until it had been mended. D. Purdy gave evidence that the shot entered the deceased's chin and blew his bruins out, death being instantaneous. The jury, of which Mr E Wilkie was foreman, returned a verdict of Accidental Death, and added the following rider - That no person should be allowed to be in possession of a gun without a license, and that no license should be issued to persons under 16 years of age.

#The District Coroner (Mr Ashcroft) held an inquest at the Upper Hutt yesterday upon the body of the lad Herbert Perkins, who met his death while out shooting on Sunday afternoon. The boy was 14 years of age, was an orphan, and was in the charge of a distant relative named Joseph Bowyer. Bowyer stated that the gun with which the boy was shot belonged to him, and was kept in an outhouse. Deceased, however, had no right to take the gun. It was not fit to use, a screw being missing from the hammer, and the trigger being light in the pull. The gun would go off at half-cock as easily as at full-cock. The boy had been cautioned not to use it until it had been mended. D. Purdy gave evidence that the shot entered the deceased's chin and blew his bruins out, death being instantaneous. The jury, of which Mr E Wilkie was foreman, returned a verdict of Accidental Death, and added the following rider - That no person should be allowed to be in possession of a gun without a license, and that no license should be issued to persons under 16 years of age reference Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 27 August 1895
