Re - James Harris Evans - Mr Thomas applied for a final order of discharge. The bankrupt in reply to his Honor said he attributed his bankruptcy to the pressure from certain of his creditors. He had been in the colony eleven or twelve years. He had not been in employment latterly. When in work he earned from 50s to 60s a week. For six months he had only received £4 15s as wages. No creditors had proved and as there was no opposition his Honor made a final order of discharge.

Committing a Breach of the Peace - James Harris Evans and Alfred Burchell were brought up for an offence of this nature. Mr O'Neal appeared for Burchell, and Mr Slater for Evans. From the evidence of Constable Stephenson it appeared that yesterday afternoon the two defendants were quarrelling in front of the Golden Ago Hotel about a horse and that subsequently they struggled together. By Mr Slater - Evans wanted to give Burchell in charge for stealing the horse but his statement was so confused that the constable declined to act without a warrant. By Mr O'Neil - Both men claimed the horse. Mr O'Neil submitted that there was no case for a breach of the peace, as the whole affair only amounted to a dispute about the ownership of the horse and he might state that a civil action would probably arise out of it. Burchell claimed the horse as his property and said he had been unwarrantably interfered with by Evans. Mr Slater also contended that there was no case against Evans and said there would no doubt be something further heard of it but not in the form of a civil action. It would rather be a criminal prosecution. The Bench dismissed the case

The death occurred at a private hospital in Wellington yesterday morning of Mrs E H Evans a pioneer in scholastic circles. The late Mrs Evans who had been ailing for the past three years was aged 68. Over forty years ago she opened the first school in Mungaroa and was mistress until 10 years ago. She was a lady of many estimable qualities and being gifted with a gracious sympathetic nature was always to the fore in times of stress and need. The demise of such a kindly soul is regretted by a large circle of friends. A family of one son and four daughters is left. Her husband predeceased her three years ago.

Te Marua School - Diamond Jubilee - On Saturday the Te Marua School near Upper Hutt, will celebrate its diamond jubilee the original school having been opened on 03 June 1879. At that time it was known as the Maungaroa School the name being changed to Te Marua on 07 April 1913 on account of confusion with Mangaroa Valley. The first school was held in what is now the head teacher's residence. On 19 July 19 1882 a one roomed school was opened and on 27 August 1912 a second room was added. The first teacher was Mrs E H Evans, who remained in charge until 31 March 1911, a period of almost 32 years, probably a record for New Zealand. Since then the following have been in charge - Miss A L Banks (now Mrs Brown), Miss E A Wallace (February to August 1920), Mr A E Barrowclough (1920-21), Miss M E Oswin (1921-25), Mrs L E Smeaton (1926-27), Mrs A Wheatley (1927-37) and Mr W A Macnab (1937-39). In 1912 the first assistant teacher was appointed. Of the above Mrs Evans and Mr Barrowclough are now deceased. The following have notified their intention of being present next Saturday, Mrs Brown, Mrs Wheatley and Mr Macnab, together with Miss Pilling (now Mrs Bengé) and Miss Kershaw (assistant teachers). An apology has also been received from Miss Oswin. On the opening day 19 pupils were enrolled, the first to be entered being Mr J T Bengé of Upper Hutt. The following Monday 10 more pupils were enrolled, while at the end of the year the roll number was 49. Of the 19 foundation pupils, 12 are still alive. The following six will be present - Messrs J T Bengé, James Johnson and Arthur Evans and Mesdames Mabey (nee Elizabeth Bengé), C C Jackson (nee Mabel Evans), and S Poulsen (nee Sarah Johnson). Of the second day pupils Messrs John Lawry, John McDonald and Ernest Pink will also be there. Of the 886 pupils enrolled in the school over half were traced and on Saturday next over 200 past and present pupils will assemble at the school, many coming from as far north as Auckland. A notable feature on the compiling of the rolls was that only three ex-pupils were located in the South Island.
