The many friends of Mrs A Quinn formerly of Arahura who has been on a visit to Westland will hear with sincere regret that she has been called back to Wellington owing to the serious illness of her son Patrick. Mrs Quinn left by the s.s. Arahura last night. We trust to hear of her son's early improvement and wish in which many friends will sincerely join. The latest news to hand today is not of a very reassuring nature

Personal Matters – A quiet but forceful and popular personality has been lost in the death of Mr Richard Quinn of Upper Hutt and Trentham, and formerly of Wellington. Mr Quinn, with his mother and family, arrived here from the Westland goldfields, where his father in the early days opened the diggings called after him Quinn's Terrace. Deceased was born at the old goldmining settlement Staffordtown about seven miles from Hokitika, 49 years ago. Until recently he was proprietor of Quinn's Post Hotel, Wallaceville, and during the four years he was in the district, he was a member of the Upper Hutt Town Board, vice-president of the Horticultural Society and the Bowling Club, and a steward of the Petone Trotting Club. He was also a prominent member of the Catholic community

Mrs Annie Quinn - The death has occurred at the age of 92 of Mrs Annie Quinn, a resident of Upper Hutt; who was well known on the West Coast and in the Wellington district in her connection with the hotel business. The late Mrs Quinn was born in Ireland. She came to New Zealand at the age of 16, her parents being among the West Coast pioneers attracted by the lure of gold. Soon after her arrival she married the late Mr Patrick Quinn, who however, died nearly 50 years ago. After leaving Hokitika Mrs Quinn, associated with members of the family, was connected with the management of various hotels in Wellington. After living in Lyall Bay for 20 years, she retired to Upper Hutt. Four out of her nine children survive her Mr J J Quinn (Taihape), Mr T Quinn (Upper Hutt), Mrs Keller (Wellington), and Mrs Allan McLean (Wellington).
