#Praise for Otaki Boy - Warwick Humphreys in the Limelight - Master Warwick Humphreys, who lived and was educated in Otaki, and who appeared before Otaki and district audiences on a number of occasions with great success, besides being successful in many competitions, has of late been further in the limelight, and the “Radio Record," in referring to “the boy with a fine voice,” says - “And there’s something that almost savours of the hand of Fate in his discovery. A week or two ago several hundred Wellington orphans were entertained by Station 2ZB. Gladstone Hill who spoke about the need for unearthing New Zealand talent in the ‘Record’ the other week arranged a community sing and invited the children to come up on the stage and perform. “The invitation was accepted by a boy who fairly electrified the audience by his wonderful singing. Gladstone Hill made enquiries and found that the boy, Warwick Humphreys, was the same lad he had taken on tour with Derry’s Military Band in 1934. But tragedy has played a part in his life since then. “The Humphreys family lived in Christchurch, but a year or two ago they came to the North Island and lived at Otaki for the benefit of the father’s health. This returned soldier, struggling against failing health and dwindling income, eventually got a job. But one day he became entangled in a circular saw and suffered terrible injuries. He died later. One of Warwick’s brothers had toured the world with Edward Branscombe and the Westminster Glee Singers. He is now in the R.A.F. in England. Another brother is at Flock House. But it was a sore struggle for Mrs Humphreys to keep a roof over the heads of Warwick and a little girl, and eventually the boy was sent to St. Joseph’s Orphanage at Upper Hutt. And it was while this orphanage was being entertained that the boy was discovered. It must have been Fate or something stronger than mere coincidence that brought Gladstone Hill and Warwick Humphreys together again. And now the load on the mother’s shoulders wick Humphreys together again. And will be considerably lightened, for it is very probable that something will be done to further the boy’s scholastic and musical careers. Financial help has been promised and already all the good people at 2ZB
have taken Warwick to their hearts. The other Saturday afternoon some of the station announcers went out to the Hutt and brought the boy to town and the blessing of the Sisters went with him. An appeal was broadcast in a temporary home for the boy and the phone rang more than 30 times in the next few minutes. Let's watch out for Renais Gage and Warwick Humphreys reference Papers past website Horowhenua Chronicle newspaper 10 February 1939
