- #Cigarettes were 6d 1920 Veteran recalls – Sugar at 5s a packet and pineapple 2s 10d a dozen tins – these are memories in the career of Mr D D Leckie specialty salesman for Fairbain Wright Ltd., who today celebrates his fifty years with the firm in Christchurch. – The job which started on April 1, 1920 at 10s a week has taken him to the half century mark – two years beyond retiring time – still on the payroll and enjoying work. Mr Leckie started as office boy for Fairbairn Wright graduated to the ledger and then to cashier and ultimately to selling on the road. This started in 1940 in the city and suburbs and later took in the West Coast and the whole of Canterbury. You really had to sell in those days said Mr Leckie. Vast changes in the business have been taken in his stride. He admitted to-day he was still happy in the job and able to handle the staff easily. But busy as he has been in the job he has found time to give many years of service to charitable, musical and sporting pursuits. A keen musician he started the YMCA orchestra in 1920 and for two years was its conductor. He was also associated with Victor Peters and the Harmonic Society and was conductor of the Lyttleton Marine Band for two years and a half.
Formed Club – After the 1930 poliomyelitis epidemic Mr Leckie formed a Cripple Boy's Club which has become the Fellowship Club of the Disabled and will celebrate its thirty second anniversary next week. He also had another anniversary his fortieth wedding anniversary to celebrate next week. On the sporting field Mr Leckie a member of the famous boxing family has distinguished himself on the bowling green. In the 1950s he won the United Club's pairs title and also the champion of champion's title. He has also won the club links title three times but the singles title has eluded him so far. I will see what the next summer brings up said the sprightly 68 year old as he settled down to his desk for another days work. A letter of congratulations from the firms New Zealand manager (Mr O Benge) included good wishes for Mr Leckie's future. It look as if they still want me said Mr Leckie [includes
