The family history of
Alfred John SLOSS and Edith PAGE

Edith PAGE was born on the 27 June 1874 at Wakapuaka Nelson. Her father William PAGE registered her birth on 05 August.

Edith was educated at Clifton Terrace School along with other members of her family. The first school record of Edith was in 1882 where it stated she was aged 8 years 1 month. I believe she started school before this date but as many old school records no longer exist this is only supposition. Edith's progress at school continued and she passed through her standards II to IV between 1883 and 1888. The last day that Edith attended school was the 19 December 1888. She was aged 14 years 6 months. Edith's destination upon leaving school was recorded as Girls College Nelson. Edith had obviously excelled in her schoolwork to progress to college.

After turning 21 Edith appeared on the 1899 and 1902 Nelson Electoral Rolls. Her occupation was recorded as Domestic Duties and she was living at Wakapuaka. In 1905 she appeared on 2 Electoral rolls. The first was Hurunui with occupation stated as Lady living at Cheviot (the Barnes family were living at Cheviot at this time) and next in Nelson with occupation spinster and dwelling in Collingwood Street.

On 26 October 1905 at the Trinity Presbyterian Church Nile Street Nelson, Edith age 31 years occupation Domestic Duties married Alfred John SLOSS age 29 occupation Driver. Rev James H MACKENZIE took the service. The witnesses were Catherine BARNES who was Edith's niece and F J LILEY. Frederick James LILEY was the husband of Edith's sister Bertha.

Alfred was a widower and his first wife Rebecca May had died the previous year. He had three children by his first marriage. They were Gertrude Doris May, Maud Alexandra Ena and John Alfred SLOSS.

I was told by some distant relatives that Edith helped to bring up these three children, and that she was loved and respected by all three children even though she was not their natural mother. I looked up the records of Alfred's first marriage and he was aged 20 years and Rebecca May REEVES was aged 14 years 9 months at the time of the marriage. Both fathers (John SLOSS and Thomas REEVES) had to give consent for the minors to marry.

Alfred was born in 1876 at Motupiko, Waimea South Nelson and his parents were John SLOSS a Labourer and Mary Magdalene formerly PAHL.

Alfred's grandparents John and Esther SLOSS came to Nelson in 1842 in the ship Clifford. Alfred's Grandfather John SLOSS was recorded as dying in the Nelson gaol on the 25th November 1856. An inquest into the death (evidence given by prisoners Frederick HOMANN and Charles HILL) stated that John SLOSS was "A Visitation from God Insanity". He left a widow Esther SLOSS and children. Alfred's other grandparents, Johann F C and Anna Magdalena PAHL came to Nelson on the "St Paul" along with our MANSSEN ancestors. Both Edith and Alfred were second generation, Nelson born New Zealanders.

At first Edith and Alfred SLOSS lived in Nelson where their two sons were born.

The 1908 Nelson Electoral Roll stated Alfred was living in Bridge Street (which was his address in 1905) and Edith living in Waimea South. Alfred's occupation was Bus driver. He may have been employed by "Newmans" but this is only supposition on my part.

The 1911 Roll had them both living in Richardson Street Nelson. The 1914 Roll stated they were living in Main Street Reefton and Alfred's occupation was Chauffeur.

Westland Electoral Rolls from 1919 to 1931 stated Edith and Alfred were living in Buccleugh Street Greymouth. Alfred's occupation was labourer in the Rolls 1919 to 1925 then Traffic Inspector for 1928 and 1931.

Alfred was 56 years old when he passed away on the 04 April 1932 in Greymouth. He was buried at the Greymouth Cemetery. Edith and Alfred SLOSS had been married for 26½ years.

Edith lived in Elmer Lane Greymouth with her son Albert Edwin after her husband's death until 1943 when she moved to 86 Cambria Street Nelson leaving both sons and their wives in Greymouth.

About 1949 one son Albert and his wife Maude joined Edith and moved to 13 Waimea Road Nelson. I could not find any trace of Edith on the Electoral rolls from 1946 to 1951.

Edith Sloss age 79 years widow died on 24 December 1953 at 13 Waimea Road Nelson from 67 Cambria Street Nelson. Cause of death was Myocardial Degeneration – recent – Sclerosis – Chronic as certified by Dr K M Emanuel who saw her last on 24 December 1953. Her parents were William Page occupation Plasterer and Caroline Louisa Henrietta Page formerly Manssen. She was buried on 26 December 1953 at Nelson cemetery by Presbyterian minister J S Strang. Edith was born in Nelson and at age 31 married Alfred John Sloss in Nelson. Her living issue were recorded as 1 male age 43. The Nelson Funeral director H G Jaunrsay registered the death on 29 December 1953.

(Reference RGO NZ death registration 1953 folio 4755 item 374 Nelson district)

Edith passed away on 24 December 1953 at Albert's house at the age of 79. Her usual residence was stated as 67 Cambria Street Nelson. She was buried on 26 December at Wakapuaka Cemetery Nelson. Rev J S STRANG a Presbyterian minister took the service. Edith's oldest son had passed away 2 years before in Greymouth leaving only one son to mourn her death.

Although both Edith's sons married neither of them had any children so there are no living descendants of Edith SLOSS formerly PAGE.
