- #Death of Mr William Hartley – Well Known Westerdale Agriculturist – It was with deep regret that the inhabitants of the dales heard of the death of Mr William Hartley of Quarry Farm Westerdale which occurred on Saturday morning after a short illness. The deceased was one of the best-known and highly respected of the dales famers and his death is a great loss to the agricultural community. He was seventy-five years of age and the eldest son of the late Mr David Hartley of Hall Farm Westerdale. He had lived in Westerdale all his life and married on 24th November 1881 Emma the younger daughter of the late Mr Martin W Knaggs of Westerdale. He commenced farming at Quarry Farm immediately after his marriage, continuing in occupation up to the time of his death a period of over fifty years. During this time Mr and Mrs Hartley were never separated except for the short period of one week. Until a short time before his death deceased was quite active and able to carry on the usual work on the farm. For a considerable number of years he acted in the capacity of estate bailiff for the Duncombe Park Estate at Westerdale. For many years he was a churchwarden at Westerdale and was organists at the Parish Church for over fifty years, until he was succeeded by his son, Mr David W Hartley. He was also correspondent for the village school and a member of the committee of the Danby Agricultural Association and of the Blackface Sheep breeders Association. He was a successful exhibitor at local shows and a competitor and judge at sheep dog trails.
Mr and Mrs Hartley celebrated their golden wedding just over a year ago when all the members of their family, four daughters and two sons were present and there are ten grandchildren and three great grandchildren.
