Mary Jane MILLS and her son James MILLS left England around 1913-14 and settled in New Zealand. Mary Jane MILLS lived in Korokoro Wellington New Zealand

1914-1918 World War One

When Mary Jane's son James MILLS enlisted in World War One service number 65429 he stated that he had resided in New Zealand for 4 years. This would mean that he arrived in New Zealand about 1913. He stated that his mother had been in NZ for 5 years making her arrival about 1912 and his father never came to NZ. His next of kin was Mrs Mary Jane MILLS (mother) address 104 Aro Street Wellington, which is the same so he must have been living with his mother at the time. James also enlisted in World War Two service number 2/18442 later 804970 where he was living in 17 Ava Street Petone. While on overseas service James married Clarice in 1918 before returning to New Zealand.

Emily KETTLEWELL aged 50 years born England widow died on 19 September 1915 at 68 Tasman Street Wellington NZ. Her parents were recorded as Ann formerly HAMER and James YATES occupation Miner. Cause of death was Pneumonia 14 days Exhaustion as certified by Dr J EWART who last saw her on 18 September. She had resided in NZ for 2½ years making her arrival in NZ about 1913. She was buried on 21 September at Karori Cemetery by the Anglican minister Rev S OGDEN. The death registration records that she was married aged 18 years in England to Arthur KETTLEWELL and her living issue were 2 males aged 28 & 26 years and 1 female aged 31 years. The death was registered on 23 September 1915 by Undertaker Edward Morrison [sic] of Wellington. The registrar was M P Althorpe [sic].

(Reference RGO NZ death registration 1915 folio 2108 line 15 website 1915/6185 Wellington district)

NOTE; Emily death registration stated that her mother was Ann HAMER which is an error but it is interesting as a Fred HAMER lived with her parents and was recorded as a [1] nephew and [2] orphan on different censuses. There has to be some family connection.
