Arrival of the Assaye – The fine iron ship Assaye under charter to the New Zealand Shipping Company arrived in harbour Saturday afternoon last from London bring a full general cargo and 417 Government passengers. The ship has made a somewhat long passage but this is attributable to the unusually light winds fallen in with on her voyage. In working down the a tings the wind proving particularly light and unfavourable. The ship has the appearance of being able to give a good account if herself with an ordinary breeze. Shortly after the vessel's entrance into our harbour she was boarded by the Health Officer abd the Government Immigration agent. Her passengers were found to be in eellent health and the ship at once received a clean bill of health and she came up harbour and anchored off the Queen Street wharf. During the passage two deathgs and two births occurred. On November 17 Precilla Ackroyd age 19 died, and on December 18 Hamel Colbourne aged 30 died. On December 20, the wife of Ben Birt gave birth to girl, and on Christmas Eve the wife of Daniel Heady presented her husband with a Christmas box in the shape of a boy. Both mothers and children are doing well. The immgrants are under the charge of Dr Young Captain McRitchie has kindly supplied us with the following particulars of her passage- Left London on September 3, and was off Start Point (after having anchored in the Downs) on the 12th landed pilot. Took the N.E. trade on the 20th on which day we sighted Madeira Island. Carried the trades to 14N. They proved very light. Fell in with the S E trades in 4 N. Crossed the equator on October 10, in 25 W. The S.E. trades were carried to 25 S they having open very indifferent. Rounded the Cape of Good Hope on November 6. From thence moderate winds and fine weather prevailed. Ran down the eastings in 45 S. Rounded Tasmania on December 12, and from thence did making the North Cape on the 21st instant, at 5 p.m had a continuation of light airs and calms. Down the coast light westerly winds and calms. The Assaye will be berthed alongside the outer T of the Queen Street wharf during the present week, for the purpose of discharging her London Cargo. The following interesting paragraph regarding the death of an old woman with two hundred and eighty three descendants, some of whom are in New Zealand appears in the Lowestoft Journal of March 12th - Mrs Frances Cooke (late of Southacre) has recently passed away at Oxwick at the age of ninety five. She claimed to have two hundred and eighty three descendant four of whom belong to the fifth generation. For the past nineteen years she has lived with her daughter Mrs Greef of Oxwick. She had two other daughters living in Norfolk one in Lancashire and one in New Zealand also three sons living at Saffron Walden in South Wales and New Zealand. She was left a widow thirty five years ago, her husband being gamekeeper for many years in the employ of the late Mr Andrew Fountaine of Narford Hall, a daughter of whom kindly allowed the old lady a pension of 5s per week for thirty four years, until she became entitled to the State old age pension. She was grandmother to Mrs Westwood of the 'Westwood Family' from New Zealand, who visited this country last year with five of their family. One of the sons named Wilfred aged twelve years, weighed 21st 6lb and one of their daughters Ruby weighed 17½st. An exhibition was held at King's Lynn, Norwich, and other places last summer.

The above lady Frances COOKE was Susannah's mother.

Woodville Examiner newspaper

The news of the death of Mrs Susanna BLY which occurred at her residence in Woodville at an early hour this morning will be received with very deep regret by a wide circle of friends throughout the Forty Mile Bush. The deceased whose maiden name was COOKE, was born at North Pickenham, Norfolk, on November 5 1844. She was therefore in her 86 year. With her husband she came to NZ 54 years ago, landing at Auckland. She came immediately by boat to Foxton. Arriving at Palmerston North by bush tram she continued her journey to Feilding by bullock dray and was one of the pioneer settlers of the Manchester Block. After residing there for a number of years, she and her husband went to Pahiatua, where they lived for 23 years. They eventually settled in Woodville in the year 1908. Mr & Mrs BLY were married in Norfolk on June 13 1863 and they held the unique record of 67 years of married life. The children of the marriage numbered 11. The first break in the family occurred 64 years after the wedding when Mrs W DOWDS the seventh daughter, passed away. She was followed two years later by Mrs C BUSHETT, the eldest child. She is survived by her husband and a grown up family of nine. There are also 54 grandchildren, 77 great grandchildren and one great great grandchildren, making a total of 141 living descendants. The late Mrs BLY, who endeared herself to hundreds of friends by her fine sociable qualities, endured all the vicissitudes of the pioneer settler, and passed peacefully to her reward in the arms of her son, Mr Robert BLY at 1.40am this morning. She was throughout her long life an ardent worker in the Methodist Church, and her unblemished Christian life served as an inspiration to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. The funeral takes place on Wednesday afternoon.

Dear Old Grandpa 19 March 1933

By the passing of Mr William BLY at his residence, Franklin Road, last Sunday, another link with the early NZ pioneers is broken.

Born in North Pickenham, Norfolk, England, on May 1 1843, Mr BLY would have reached his 91st Birthday in six weeks from the time of his demise. Prior to leaving the Old Country the deceased gentleman occupied the position of game-keeper to the late Sir Charles JENKINSON, and had the pleasure and honour of Kin Edward VII shooting over the game grounds under his control. He reached NZ on the sailing ship "ASSAYE" 59 years ago last Boxing Day, and finally to Feilding by bullock dray, where, with his family, he became one of the original settlers of the Manchester block taking up the section known as the trig station on the Makino Road. There Mr BLY carved his home out of the dense bush, and after residing there for a number of years, proceeded to Pahiatua, later coming to Woodville, where he has lived for the past 25 years.

There is a family of eleven, nine of whom are still living. Mr & Mrs BLY enjoyed the companionship of their children for 63 years without a break in the family tree, until their daughters, the late Mrs DOWDS, and the later Mrs BUSHETT, were taken from them by death. They were married 67 years at the time of the passing of the late Mrs BLY two years ago and the large number of 171 living descendants.

The nine surviving children are: Messrs William BLY of Morrinsville, Waikato; John Paekakariki; Robert of Woodville, Mrs WESTWOOD of Auckland, Mrs HAYES of Waihi, Mrs GARDNER of Te Kuiti, Mrs DOWNARD, Bay of Plenty, Mrs DAVIS of Paekakariki and Mrs TAYLOR of Wellington. There are 65 grandchildren, 91 great grandchildren and 4 great great grandchildren. The sympathy of a wide circle of friends will be extended to relatives left to mourn their loss.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at the Woodville cemetery, when there was a long cortege of relatives and friends.

Being a Norfolkman, the old Norfolk custom of transferring the casket outside, was followed and the service held in the grounds, being conducted by Rev G KNOWLES-SMITH. During the brief service, the Reverend gentleman spoke of the long and honoured life of the deceased, and the general esteem in which he was held. The pallbearers were, Messrs, C FORREST, G PEBBLES, W CURRY, HP HORNE, D KEAY and RR JOHNSTON. There was a very large gathering of friends which included representatives of the Woodville Methodist Church, Borough and County Councils, Masonic and Foresters' Lodges, Racing, Football and Bowling Clubs, the R.S.A. and A. & P. Association, as well as a number of friends from Feilding and other distant places.
