

DE THIERRY FAMILIES IN NEW ZEALAND

Introduction and contents (Weblink DT0 Introduction & contents)

While researching two of my grandchildren's genealogy I gathered a lot of information about Baron Charles De Thierry his ancestors and descendants in New Zealand.

While I could share some of the information with my grandchildren there was so much more that related to other branches of the De Thierry family tree. Instead of leaving the collected information in boxes I decided to transcribe all the research and share it with others.

Please note that Maori birth & death registration did not become compulsory until 1913 through to 1961 and Maori marriage registration began 1911 to 1954. Amalgamation of Maori & European births & deaths became law in 1962 and the amalgamation of Maori and European marriage registration became law in 1952.

Maori birth, death and marriage registration were hard to enforce and many were not registered making it hard to trace some of the DE THIERRY genealogy. A few registrations were made in the European system. I am grateful for any assistance to help complete some of the missing DE THIERRY genealogy.
