#The Otago Times 01 February 1866 - 100 years ago from the files of “The Otago Times 01 February 1866 – The ship Warrior Queen left Gravesend on 01 November 1865 with 11 first cabin, 4 second-cabin, 55 Steerage passengers. On 04 November the pilot left her off the Isle of Wight experienced variable winds and weather up to the 09 when she had strong gales from the eastward with a heavy confused sea afterwards experience favorable winds and weather as far as Tristan d’Acunha. Thence she met a succession of westley gales passing the Cape on the 29 of December. On the 09 January passed a large iceberg and after that date had strong gales from the westward passing the Snares on the 27 and arriving off the Port on the morning of the 28th – thus making the passage from the time of landing her pilot to arriving off the Port in 84 days. During the passage there was one birth on board and all the passengers arrived well. The vessel is consigned to Messrs Dalgety, Rattray and Co.

#John and Charlotte FOOTE settled in the Port Chalmers region. They lived in a tent on the slopes of Mopanui. On arrival John tried his hand at gold digging but with little success. Returning to Dunedin he purchased a farming property at Purakanui where they built a "wattle and daub" cottage later replaced by the homestead named "Asleigh" which still stands today but renamed "Matariki".

#Obituary November 1918 = John FOOTE – Purakanui has again to mourn the loss of one of its oldest pioneers in the person of Mr John Foote. Just a week previous to his death his wife died and this no doubt along with an attack of pleurisy hastened his end. Mr Foote was born in Somersetshire in 1839 and at the age of 13 years he went to sea. After two year he with several members of the crew ran away in Australia and got employed on a station. Six months later he joined another vessel in Sydney and remained at sea till he got his masters certificate. In 1865 he left the sea to get married and came to New Zealand arriving at Port Chalmers in 1866. On arrival he tried his hand at gold digging but with little success. Returning to Dunedin he purchased a farm at Purakanui where he has resided ever since. He was always a prominent and able citizen taking part in all things pertaining to the welfare of the district. He was one of those instrumental in establishing a school in the district and for many years he served as chairman, committeeman and clerk. He also served many years as a member of the Blueskin Road Board and later served 18 years as councilor and twice as chairman of the Waikouaiti County Council. The funeral took place at Pukakanui on Sunday and was largely attended. A family of five sons and five daughters survived.
