7. Vera HARRIS born 02 November 1929 Invercargill New Zealand

William John HARRIS was born on the 24 August 1883 (comment - it was actually 19 August) at Waikiwi Invercargill New Zealand. His parents were recorded as George Thomas HARRIS age 32 born (about 1852) London England occupation Carpenter and Alice formerly MORRIS age 23 born (about 1860) Warrington England. His parents were married on 5 June 1878 at Gladstone New Zealand. George Thomas HARRIS father from Waikiwi registered the birth on 23 October 1883.

(Reference NZ RGO birth registration 1883 folio 4375 item 417 Invercargill district website 1883/17381 parents Alice and George Thomas Harris)

Comment - William's youngest daughter Vera stated that the family always celebrated their father's birthday on the 19th August not the 24th. William's father George must have given the incorrect date when registering William's birth as school records confirmed the birth date as 19 August 1883.

Harriet Agnes FISHER

Harriet Agnes FISHER was born at 5.30 pm on the 07 April 1885 at Avenal Invercargill or perhaps Longbush Invercargill New Zealand. Harriet's later baptism confirmed the date of birth. Her parents were Margaret Isabella formerly LESTRANGE and Edward Alexander FISHER.

Harriett's father Edward FISHER wrote on a piece of paper details of his daughter's birth which reads; "Harriet born at Avenal Invercargill on 7th April 1885 at 5.30 pm."

(Reference a piece of paper written by Edward Alexander Fisher and handed down to grandchildren Vera Harris married surname McDermott in New Zealand and later handed to Vera brother Richard Harris in Australia)

I have been unable to locate an Invercargill birth registration to confirm the date of birth but Harriet's youngest daughter Vera confirmed the birth date of her mother Harriet as 07 April 1885. Some official government registration documents record the place of birth as [1] Avenal and [2] Longbush Invercargill.

Avenal is a suburb of Invercargill and Longbush is situated on the outskirts of Invercargill. Further details about both districts can be found in the New Zealand "Dolimore directory" publication.

I could not locate any other school records for Harriet Agnes FISHER in any transcriptions of the Invercargill Catholic School registers. Perhaps the school records no longer exist or the school would not permit the records to be transcribed. Many of the Catholic Schools had a private school status under the Education Department.

Catholic Church baptism

- Harriet Mary FISHER (known as Harriet Agnes FISHER) was born 07 April 1885 and baptised 20 April 1894 in Waikiwi Invercargill. Her parents were recorded as Margaret and Edward FISHER. Mary GAVIN was her godmother and the Officiating Minister was Father N VEREKER. Harriet was baptised 2 days after her older sister Charlotte. Harriet was 9 years old when she was baptised.

(Reference Parish baptism register 8 number 591 Catholic Diocesan Archives, 300 Rattray Street, Dunedin)

Harriet Agnes FISHER was aged about 9 years when her family moved to Waikiwi around 1894. According to her later intention to marry application she arrived in Waikiwi around 1895.

Harriet was aged 14 years 6 months old when her mother Margaret Isabella FISHER nee LESTRANGE died on 26 October 1899 in Invercargill.

The story handed down stated that Harriet was sent to a convent school where French Nuns taught her various handcrafts like sewing, knitting, embroidery, crochet and lace making. Harriet produced some beautiful handwork during her lifetime.

When Harriet Agnes FISHER turned 21 years old on 07 April 1906 she became entitled to vote in New Zealand.

William John HARRIS became to Publican of the Wallacetown Junction Hotel at the Junction of Wallacetown and Lorneville Invercargill around 1922. The Wallacetown Junction Hotel also known as the White House Hotel and Lorneville Hotel was still operating in 2010 and is situated on the Riverton Highway, Lorneville Invercargill.

(Reference Alexander Turnbull Library Wellington Stones and Southland Directory Publications)

I was told that William's father George Thomas HARRIS occupation carpenter assisted in rebuilding the original Wallacetown Junction hotel along with partner James FARRELL occupation brick maker after the 1900 fire that destroyed the Hotel. I believe Farrell and Harris may have assisted in making some additions and/or alterations to the Hotel while William was living there with his wife Harriet and their seven children.

NOTE – For information about the history of the Hotel and the publicans please refer to the document saved in the Harris genealogy section. The Hotel in 2000 was known as "Whitehouse Hotel" situated Riverton Highway Lorneville with a 'Tin Shed Café & Bar'. On my last visit to Invercargill the hotel was privately owned & operated and the proprietors were then Ms Little and Mr Hamilton.

William and Harriet's daughter Marjorie HARRIS returned to Makarewa School in 1931

William owned a property which contained 3 houses known to locals as the three sisters as they were all built in the same style. Around 1932 William had two of the houses pulled down and the remainder was rented while on the now empty section a new house was built for the Harris family. William also owned 5 acres of land which was originally owned by his parents Alice and George Thomas HARRIS. This information came from a family member but I have not searched any of the details.

Around 1931-1932 William and Harriet along with their children left the Wallacetown Junction Hotel and moved to North Road Waikiwi.

William's brother Richard HARRIS then became the Publican of the Hotel from 1932 to 1943 and after Richard their brother-in-law Alexander Murdoch HOWDEN became the Publican from 1944 to 1946. The running of the Hotel stayed within the family for around 30 years.

Maurice never married but I was told that before he went overseas he was engaged to a catholic girl. Not many knew that Maurice's mother Harriet, along with her sister Charlotte and mother Margaret were all baptized Catholics. Harriet had married an Anglican like her mother but Harriet had all her children baptised as Anglicans. Harriet was known to dislike any negative comments or jokes about Catholics but the family loved to tease their mother. Maurice's mother Harriet went out of her way to protect Maurice's fiancé.

During World War Two Marjorie left Wellington and travelled to Auckland to be with her brother Maurice HARRIS. He enlisted in Auckland on 02 October 1940.

Marjorie and her older sister Doris said fare-well to their brother Maurice MARRIS when he left for overseas duty. This would have been when he left the first time from Auckland to Fiji on the 06 January 1941 and later returned 29 May 1941 to New Zealand before leaving from Wellington on 27 June 1941 for overseas duty in the Middle East. Maurice HARRIS was killed in action in Egypt on 20 July 1942.

When Marjorie's older sister Doris married James Bertie (Jim) LESSELS and settled in Nelson Marjorie also went to live in Nelson. Around this time their younger sister Vera attended Nelson Central School between 18 December 1842 and 11 May 1943. Vera may have been living in Nelson with her older sister Marjorie HARRIS or her older married sister Doris LESSELS.

Sometime after the War Marjorie left Nelson and settled in the Wellington district.

1946 Petone Electoral Roll Wellington

Marjorie was living with her older married sister Doris LESSELS and family at 74 Richmond Street Petone. While living in the Wellington district she met her husband Leonard JOHNSON.

Leonard JOHNSON was born 24 November 1908 Greymouth New Zealand. His parents were recorded on his marriage registration as Mary KENWARD and Henry John JOHNSON. I searched and could not locate a New Zealand birth registration for Leonard JOHNSON or a marriage for his parents.

The family story handed down by Aunt Marjorie said that Leonard was an only child, his parents died when he was young and he was bought up by two spinster Aunts. I first began searching the Johnson genealogy but with no success. This was followed by the Kenward family which eventually lead me to the Pavitt family.

Further research confirmed that Leonard was actually born Leonard Thomas PAVITT and his parents were Mary Elizabeth formerly KENWARD and Henry John PAVITT.

Leonard Thomas PAVITT was born 24 November 1908 Greymouth New Zealand to parents Mary Elizabeth and Henry John Pavitt.

1938 Wellington Central Electoral Roll

- Leonard Thomas PAVITT Clerk 147 Brougham Street Wellington
(Reference Ancestry website 1938 Wellington Central Electoral Roll Auckland record number 16877)

Leonard changed his surname from PAVITT to JOHNSON between 1938 and 1939 but the reason is unknown. He may have tried to enlist in World War Two but was rejected so he enlisted again under a different surname. This was quite common as the service personnel did not have to produce a birth certificate to enlist.

On 31 October 1939 in Auckland Leonard JOHNSON enlisted and serve overseas with the 2nd New Zealand Expeditionary Force. He became a prisoner of war around 18 May 1941 and towards the end of the War he was one of the many Prisoners of War who took the long march out of German. Leonard was reported safe in England on 23 May 1945 and returned to New Zealand around September 1945.

Leonard's service records recorded the address 147 Brougham Street Wellington. This was the address where Leonard's spinster aunt Mary Fanny PAVITT resided and confirmed the link to his PAVITT ancestors.

Recorded on Leonard's army records for his employer and the next of kin noted in his Will recorded the address of 3 Symonds Street Auckland. This was the address of the San Remo Prv. Htl. (Private Hotel) run by Mrs A MCLEOD. Leonard must have been staying here and perhaps met a Henry JOHNSON and borrowed his surname when Leonard enlisted in the Army.

Leonard JOHNSON (PAVITT) did not marry Muriel Alix CHARLTON but later married Muriel Alice HARRIS. Leonard met Muriel HARRIS in Wellington around 1946 when she was living with her married sister Doris LESSELS at 74 Richmond Street Petone.

Richard HARRIS was born 14 June 1927 in Waikiwi Invercargill New Zealand.

Richard first home was at the Whitehouse Hotel in Lornerville Invercargill. The family later moved to Main Road Waikiwi. Richard would have attended Waikiwi School.

Richard and his older brothers were all keen on cycling. In fact the Harris brothers held a Southland cycling record for many years. Richard continued his cycling career well into his retirement and attended races in Europe and Australia. There are a few 1950's newspaper articles regarding Richard's early cycling days in Southland.

Invercargill 1950s newspaper articles

The track for the cycling events was a little rough and uneven in places but was firm and fast for grass. The outstanding amateur rider was R Harris who bettered I Berry

(Dunedin) on the day in same thrilling tussle after clearing away from the field. In the one and a half mile event W Hoffman came into this own ad won a close finish. Harris made a break in the last lap but Hoffman and Berry chased him and Harris could not hold Hoffman out in the sprint for the tape. Young rides from the Orepuki club rode with promise in the heats of the mile but three were eliminated from the final by a crash in which all were brought down. On eof them Fowler had a popular win in the mile. The professional peddlers were again represented by the Green Island club.

There were other 1950s newspaper articles with only partial headlines and contents:-

[b] _ Wins _ Race

[c] Cycling Amateur – Final Harris 1

In his retirement Richard known by all as Dick wrote about his memories of growing up at the hotel and Waikiwi. On the other side of a scrap piece of paper that had been used to print a newspaper article was part of Dick's draft story and reads:

"take me home to her place and I would stay sometimes. She later married Gordon Taylor a butcher. I can remember him very well. He used to work for Maltbys butcher at the terminus at Waikiwi and he came to the hotel with a horse and cart with meat for the hotel. In fact the baker used to arrive with bread and cakes in a cart and horse. Mr brother knew the days that he was coming and would hide up the road and one would run out on the road and give him some cheek and he would stop his horse and cart and chase one of my brothers. While he did this my other brother would help himself to the cakes. Another thing that I loved to do was to go to the time shed and held myself to acid drops, there were tins of them, I think that they were used for something to do with draft beer, also there were funny shaped bottles that had glass marbles in the neck of the bottle and the man working in the shed would break the odd on e and give me the marbles.

Another thing that happened – Mum and Dad had to go to Invercargill a lot probably for banking etc. This particular day that I went with them we were coming home and having often been in taxis with either George Maltby or Hughie Agnew I was playing at being a passenger and I opened the back door of the car and probable said I will get out here, well I could not get the door closed. Mum and Dad did not know what was going on as they were busy talking. We were about to go around Coopers (so named because of the people that had built the first grocer shop near there) I was hanging on to the door handle and as we went around the corner the door swings open and out I go – fortunately I landed on the grass verge. This would be about a quarter of a mile from the hotel. I was not missed till mum and Dad arrived at the hotel. The Langmuirs who had the shop on the corner saw me fall out of the car and rushed over to me and had me when Mum and Dad returned for me. My parents were more shook up then I only my pride was hurt. I had a pedal car and a three wheeled trike there was plenty of room for me to ride around.

I can remember that we used to go to Orepuki some Sundays. Dad had a sister who lived there, my Aunt Jean. They had a huge orchard. Uncle Arthur was a gold miner, he used to sluice the hills for the gold. There was also a shale works near their house and I would poke around there. My cousin Ira who died in 1996 told me that my father was very generous he always came laden with goodies for them. I also remember going to Bluff and seeing the old petrol pumps called Plume which were worked with a handle and had two one gallon jars side by side. When one was full it would start to empty as the other filled up – quite fascinating. These events that I have described are very real to me as if they happened yesterday. There would have been other events but I don't recall any as my brothers and sisters have passed on I have no way of finding out.

In 1932 my father who also owned the property at Waikiwi of the three sisters plus five acres of land) this was the original property belonging to his mother and father) has a new home built. Two of the three sisters were pulled down to make way for the new house, he left one of the three sister and rented it. I can remember the two houses being pulled down. There were piles of cedar shingles from the roofs of the tow. For years I used to cut them up for kindling wood to start the fires. When the house was finished we moved from the hotel. My mother and father had been in the hotel for ten years. Dad's brother Richard took over the hotel from him and was there for twelve years, then Dad's sister Florence and her husband took over (end of the page no more details)

Richard and his family lived in Invercargill for many years. He and his family spent 2-3 years in Canada then returned to Invercargill. Later they moved to Queenstown and after retiring settled in Australia. Richard or Dick as everyone knew him built nearly all of the houses they lived in including the house in Australia.

One of the houses Richard built was 30 Cruickshank Crescent Invercargill.

Dick and Margaret were living at 5 Panorama Place Queenstown New Zealand in 1990 but later settled in Australia. While in Australia Dick continued to cycle and won many veteran races. Dick won some bronze medals with his cycling while retired. Margaret loved playing music (organ) and became involved with the "Silver Belles Trio" with Betty and Pat. Margaret was also involved with a group named "Noose Melody Makers".

Dick and Margaret's address was 8 Wandi Street, Noosa Outlook 4565 Queensland Australia.

#Shipping List – Last night the fine barque Jane 360 tons, Joshua Pallott master which left here on Monday, the 1st April, with two passengers and a cargo of 485 tons of copper ore, put back, dismasted. She had got as far as the 124 of east longitude (about three days sail this side of Cape Leeuwin) when she encountered a terrific gale from W.S.W which carried away her mainmast about six feet from the deck, and her fore-top gallant and mozen top-masts. This was at 3 o'clock on Monday morning, the 8th instant, while lying to the sea at the time running very high. Fortunately no lives were lost, and no person injured. A considerable part of the larboard bulwarks is broken by the fall of the mast but except this, there if no more damage done and she returned without leaking at all, although having a heavy cargo of copper ore. Mr Deslandes of Jersey is the owner and she is not insured. Reference National Library of NZ papers past website Daily Southern Cross newspaper 07 June 1850 page 2

#Shipping News – The ship Chile Captain Turnbull has arrived after a voyage of 101 days. She left Gravesend on Saturday the 31 August and anchored in the Downs on 01 September. The child of a steerage passenger named Palamountain died, whilst running through Princess Sounds. It had a long been in a very unhealthy state, the burial took place at Deal on the Sunday. The wind did not permit the ship starting till Monday afternoon. Light head winds increasing to a gale off Folkstone were experienced during the Channel passage. The last sight of the shores of England was taken on the 10th September. The 13th and 14th were remarkable for a very heavy sea running from the westward the barometer standing high the lowest point noted being 30.200. The fore topsail yard was carried away here but a new one was made on deck and sent aloft on the 15th the ship rolling heavily meanwhile. Latitude 42.31 N.: longitude 14.29 W. this date. Light and variable winds accompanied by great heat, from the African Coast carried her to the N.E. Trades which were fallen in with on the 26th in lat. 21 31 N., long 25.49 and dropped 13 instant. The heat new became so great the thermometer standing during mid-day at 110 deg. Fahrenheit under the awning that the health of the passengers became generally bad and three children died before crossing the line, but this must be considered a very small number as in all there were 84 on board. The S.E. Trades were struck in lat. 4, N.; long. 27, W. The Equator was crossed on the 11th October in long. 28.45, W.; from this time light easterly winds were experienced until the 24th of October and from this light variable winds until the 1st November. After this very good runs were made during the month of November running in one day 304 knots and another 296 knots. On the 13th Nov., in lat. 51.34, S; long 39.25, E, a large iceberg was seen at about fifteen miles distance. On the following day in a heavy gale from N.N.E., the life-boat was washed from the davits taking with it the hose of the fire engine. On the 30th Nov. Mrs Eccles wife of the Surgeon died of sea-sickness of 90 days duration. No great cold has been experienced the thermometer never standing below 32 deg. on deck. The Snares were sighted on the evening of the 6th instant which fresh breezes from the north east have been encountered also very light winds from the S.W. Brought up at the heads at 4 pm on the 13th instant and was towed up to Post Chalmers by the Samson steam tug. All the passengers well. #I was given information that George CHALLIS died 11 March 1908

#At Avenal on Tuesday there passed away one of the oldest residents of this part of New Zealand in the person of Mr George Challis. Mr Challis was born in Walthamstow, Essex, 68 years ago, and arrived in New Zealand when he was 24 years of age. The deceased gentleman was married in Riverton in 1864, and the fruit of the union was a family of seven sons and four daughters, who are now grown up. In the early days Mr Challis participated in the rush to Gabriel's Gully, but the greater part of his life was spent in his profession of gardener, in which he was very highly skilled. Mr Challis was for many years a volunteer in the Invercargill Rifles, and he

- also played his part in local affairs. For a number of years he served on the Committee of the Park School, and for a considerable term he was chairman of the committee. He rendered valuable services to Avenal as Borough Councillor, and on several occasions was elected Mayor. He was also the father of the Juvenile rechabites [sic] and chaplain of the Mason's Lodge St John. A man of fine physique and appearance, of good sense and of sound practical knowledge in many useful matters, the late Mr Challis was a serviceable citizen and one who used his activities, in the interests of the community in which he lived reference National Library of NZ papers past website Southland Times newspaper 28 September 1905 page 2
- #Death – Challis – At Avenal Road on September 26th 1905 after a long illness George Challis beloved husband of Margaret Pollock Challis aged 68 years. Deeply regretted. The Funeral will leave the house at 2.30 pm on Friday 29th inst., for the Eastern cemetery. #Personal Items - Mr Thomas Pavitt, who died in Wellington on Sunday night, had for over 70 years resided in the Dominion and during that long period he gained a wide circle of friends. One of the late Mr Pavitt's most important undertakings was the scheme for the construction of the railway on the West Coast the work on which is now in course or completion. He was one of the promoters of the Midland Railway Company, and was largely responsible for the sending of delegates to England to raise money for the commencement of the West Coast railway. The deceased gentleman came to New Zealand with his parents in 1850, in the ship Monarch, landing at Akaroa on April 2. The family settled at Robinson's Bay and commenced sawmilling. Their work included the building of two schooners which traded round Banks Peninsula. After being burnt out in 1860 the family went to Christchurch, where the late Mr Thomas Pavitt with one of his brothers, commenced business as a timber merchant. In 1885 he left the business, and two years later was employed by the New Zealand Railway Company on the West Coast. #Death of Mr Thomas Pavitt – One of New Zealand's well-known identities Mr Thomas Pavitt died at his residence Broughton Street last night. For over seventy years he had lived in the Dominion and during that long period he gained a wide circle of friends among whom were members of the Wellesley Club. By all he was highly respected and deep regret will be felt at his loss which was brought about by an attack of pneumonia. One of the late Mr Pavitt's most important undertakings was the scheme for the construction of the railway on the West Coast the work on which is now in course of completion. He was one of the promoters of the Midland Railway Company and was largely responsible for the sending of delegates to England to raise money for the commencement of the West Coast railway. These delegates Messrs W Acton Adams (Christchurch), W B Perceval (Christchurch), and Fell (Nelson). The deceased gentleman came to New Zealand with his parents and their family in 1850, in the ship Monarch (347 tons), landing at Akaroa on the 2nd April. The family settled at Robinson's Bay, and commenced sawmilling. Their work included the building of two schooners, the Seabird and the Flirt, which traded round Banks Peninsula. After being burnt out in 1850, the family went to Christchurch, where the late Mr Thomas Pavitt, with one of his brothers, commenced business as a timber merchant. In 1885 he left the business, and, two years later, was employed by the New Zealand Railway Company on the West Coast. When this undertaking terminated in 1892, he came to Wellington, and had since resided with his sons. While in business in Christchurch he married Miss Abbott, a daughter of another family of early settlers. His wife predeceased him by three years, and of a family of six sons and three daughters, the following are left to mourn their loss - Messrs Austin Pavitt (of Bank of New Zealand, Lambton Quay), Owen Pavitt (of Bethune and Co.), Harold Pavitt (of Masterton), and Charles and Henry Pavitt (both of Wellington), Mrs L G Spencer (of Auckland), and Misses Fanny and Lucy Pavitt (of Wellington). #Drowning Accident – Wilson’s Bridge – Death of L T Pavitt - Another drowning case occurred in the river Heathcote this morning, a youth named Leonard Thomas Pavitt, aged seventeen, a son of Mr Thomas Pavitt, of the firm of T. and E. Pavitt, being the victim. It appears that the deceased, with his brother William, aged 13, and his two cousins, Walter and Edward, aged nineteen and fifteen, left home this morning for Wilson Bridge, for the purpose of bathing. The locality chosen was about two hundred yards above the bridge, where the water is shallow and the current very strong. Leonard Pavitt went in at the place mentioned, the others choosing a spot a few yards further up the river. The spot where the deceased took the water was shallow, but about three yards round the corner the bottom suddenly drops to about eleven feet deep. Deceased appeared to lose his footing, and just as he was disappearing the others heard him cry out. None of them could swim with sufficient confidence to go after the unfortunate lad, who was swept down by the strong current. Fifteen minutes afterwards he was got out of the water. In the meantime the alarm was raised, and Constable Duggan, stationed at Sydenham, was sent for. So, too, was Dr Anderson, who galloped down to the river, and after seeing everything done that could be devised, pronounced life extinct. The body of the deceased was then sent to the residence of his mother, at Phillipstown. Deceased was a clerk in the employ of the Railway Department at Christchurch reference National Library of NZ papers past website Star newspaper 24 January 1887 page 3

#The Heathcote Drowning Case – The Inquest - An inquest on the body of the late Leonard Thomas Pavitt, who was drowned in the Heathcote on Monday, was held at the residence of his father, Mr T. Pavitt, at 3 p.m. to-day, before Mr R. Beetham, Coroner, and a jury, of which Mr J E Bashford was chosen foreman. Walter Pavitt, cousin of deceased, deposed that at about half -past six on Monday morning he went with his brother and deceased to bathe in the Heathcote river. They went into the shallow water, and witness, whose back was towards the deceased, heard him screaming. He ran to him and found that he had got into a deep hole, into which witness fell himself. He tried to catch hold of deceased, but could not, and got out of the hole with difficulty, as he could only swim a few strokes. He then called out to two strangers who were bathing on the opposite bank one of them swam down, but when he came up he was too much exhausted to assist deceased, who sank in seven or eight feet of water. Witness then ran to Mr Anderson’s house, and a young man came down. A drag was brought and deceased was got out, but he was dead. The deceased could not swim. Gustav Adolpf Lindemann, gardener, residing at Wilson’s road, stated that on Monday morning he was called to the river, when he saw the deceased lying in the water. The body was got out in about five minutes, but it was quite dead. Constable John Dougan deposed that about 7 o’clock on Monday morning he got information that a boy had been drowned in the Heathcote. He sent word to Dr Anderson, and proceeded to the spot himself. On arriving he found Dr Anderson endeavouring to restore life. Hundreds of boys were in the habit of bathing at the place where the accident occurred, which was very dangerous, owing to the holes in the bottom, which was weedy. It was situated on public property. The danger could be removed by filling up the holes. This was all the evidence, and the jury returned a verdict of Accidentally Drowned, with a rider calling the attention of the local authorities to the dangerous state of the river near Wilson’s Bridge, and suggesting that the holes in the river bed should be filled up with shingle, or that a notice board should be put up warning persons of the danger reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Star newspaper 25 January 1887 page 3

#The whole of the people of this district and of Cobden in particular will extend their deepest sympathy to Mr Henry Pavitt whose wife Mary died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The deceased had earned the love and respect of all with whom she came in contact in the daily round of life and her demise will be sincerely regretted by a large circle of friends. We deeply sympathise with Mr Pavitt – who has lost a true helpmeet – and the only son Leonard. Fortunately Mrs Pavitt's sister Mrs George Stent who resides in Cobden was enabled to nurse her sister through her long illness. Medical aid was in constant attendance and all their medical skill could devise was done but unfortunately without avail. The funeral will be a private one reference National Library of NZ papers past website Grey River Argus newspaper 13 January 1916 page 2
