New Zealand Herald newspaper 25 December 1869

The Boat Accident at the Waiwera - Inquest on the Bodies - An inquest on the bodies of Hannah Hamlen, James Titford, and E H Willis Hall, was held on the 23rd instant by Henry Lloyd Esq, JP, and a jury of twelve sitting at the house of Mr Alfred Hall Waiwera. Joseph Billings stated I found Mrs Hamlen and baby on the beach below high water mark. I found them lying on their sides. I called for someone to come and James Crawford came up and we carried them into the boat. Was there when the body of Mr Titford was found. I did not see the accident happen. The child was lying in Mrs Hamlen's arms. Alfred Hall stated that he was in the boat when the accident happened. Hugh Gibson came part of the way in the boat with us. He then got out of the boat to meet us by a short cut. We "cooeyed" when we got there but could not hear him. We next saw him in the river. We tried to get him into the boat and he then went over the other side of the boat and capsized the boat and all in it into the river including Mrs Hamlen, Mrs Titford, James Titford, Mrs Hall, two of my boys and myself. My child Edward was drowned. Gibson was in danger of losing his life when we took him in. He was very nearly drunk. The boat was capable of carrying a dozen and there were only seven in it. The accident happened about dusk. My child was aged 18 months. Titford's age was about forty. James Billing stated I found Mr Titford in about three feet of water an hour before daylight on the 22ud inst. Saw no marks of violence on him. I was there shortly after the other bodies were found. Mrs Hamlin and Henry Hall I also saw. I was not in the boat when the accident happened. Titford's body was lying about 200 yards from where the other bodies were found. This concluded the evidence and the jury returned a verdict to the effect "That deceased came to their death by the accidental capsizing of a boat in the Waiwera River, caused by a man getting into it."

#The Boat Accident at the Waiwera - Inquest on the Bodies - An inquest on the bodies of Hannah Hamlen, James Titford, and E H Willis Hall, was held on the 23rd instant by Henry Lloyd Esq, JP, and a jury of twelve sitting at the house of Mr Alfred Hall Waiwera. Joseph Billings stated I found Mrs Hamlen and baby on the beach below high water mark. I found them lying on their sides. I called for someone to come and James Crawford came up and we carried them into the boat. Was there when the body of Mr Titford was found. I did not see the accident happen. The child was lying in Mrs Hamlen's arms. Alfred Hall stated that he was in the boat when the accident happened. Hugh Gibson came part of the way in the boat with us. He then got out of the boat to meet us by a short cut. We "cooeyed" when we got there but could not hear him. We next saw him in the river. We tried to get him into the boat and he then went over the other side of the boat and capsized the boat and all in it into the river including Mrs Hamlen, Mrs Titford, James Titford, Mrs Hall, two of my boys and myself. My child Edward was drowned. Gibson was in danger of losing his life when we took him in. He was very nearly drunk. The boat was capable of carrying a dozen and there were only seven in it. The accident happened about dusk. My child was aged 18 months. Titford's age was about forty. James Billing stated I found Mr Titford in about three feet of water an hour before daylight on the 22nd inst. Saw no marks of violence on him. I was there shortly after the other bodies were found. Mrs Hamlin and Henry Hall I also saw. I was not in the boat when the accident happened. Titford's body was lying about 200 yards from where the other bodies were found. This concluded the evidence and the jury returned a verdict to the effect "That deceased came to their death by the accidental capsizing of a boat in the Waiwera river, caused by a man getting into it." reference National Library of NZ Papers past website 25 December 1869 page 5

- #By the upsetting of a boat recently at Waiwera Auckland a Mrs Hanlen, Mr Titford and a baby have been drowned. There were in all eight persons in the boat which upset as one of the men was stepping into it. Five were rescued by another boat at a little distance. The three bodies were found shortly afterward the baby being fast locked in the arms of Mrs Hanlen reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Bruce Herald newspaper 19 January 1870 page 6
- #The Boat Accident at the Waiwera - Inquest on the Bodies - An inquest on the bodies of Hannah Hamlen, James Titford, and E H Willis Hall, was held on the 23rd instant by Henry Lloyd Esq, JP, and a jury of twelve sitting at the house of Mr Alfred Hall Waiwera. Joseph Billings stated I found Mrs Hamlen and baby on the beach below high water mark. I found them lying on their sides. I called for someone to come and James Crawford came up and we carried them into the boat. Was there when the body of Mr Titford was found. I did not see the accident happen. The child was lying in Mrs Hamlen's arms. Alfred Hall stated that he was in the boat when the accident happened. Hugh Gibson came part of the way in the boat with us. He then got out of the boat to meet us by a short cut. We "cooeyed" when we got there but could not hear him. We next saw him in the river. We tried to get him into the boat and he then went over the other side of the boat and capsized the boat and all in it into the river including Mrs Hamlen, Mrs Titford, James Titford, Mrs Hall, two of my boys and myself. My child Edward was drowned. Gibson was in danger of losing his life when we took him in. He was very nearly drunk. The boat was capable of carrying a dozen and there were only seven in it. The accident happened about dusk. My child was aged 18 months. Titford's age was about forty. James Billing stated I found Mr Titford in about three feet of water an hour before daylight on the 22nd inst. Saw no marks of violence on him. I was there shortly after the other bodies were found. Mrs Hamlin and Henry Hall I also saw. I was not in the boat when the accident happened. Titford's body was lying about 200 yards from where the other bodies were found. This concluded the evidence and the jury returned a verdict to the effect "That deceased came to their death by the accidental capsizing of a boat in the Waiwera river, caused by a man getting into it." reference National Library of NZ Papers past website 25 December 1869 page 5
