When the Maidstone Mall was built a pharmacy was opened in the mall. To save any confusion between Maidstone Pharmacy Limited and the Maidstone Mall pharmacy Peter Owles's business was referred to as Peter Owles Pharmacy.

Upper Hutt Leader 04 January 1995

Peter Owles's father a pharmacist had come to Wellington in 1946 and later owned a Lower Hutt business. Peter qualified as a pharmacist in 1955 and opened Maidstone Pharmacy in Queen's Chambers in 1956 then moved to the former Marshall's Glass building (site) on the corner of Logan and Main streets in 1964. He traded as Peter Owles Pharmacy after Maidstone Mall opened. The new owners in 1995 Joanna and Michael Seymour reverted to the company's formal name as Maidstone had disappeared from the Mall.

(Reference Upper Hutt City Library Heritage collection Recollect website Upper Hutt Leader 04 January 1995)

At the end of 1994 and beginning of 1995 Peter Owles sold his business to Joanna Margaret and Michael Colin Seymour. As the chemist in the mall had closed the Seymour's reverted the business to its former name Maidstone Pharmacy Limited.

The Maidstone Pharmacy Limited closed and around 19 September 2008 the business was stuck off the company register.

I have been unable to trace any addition information about the Trentham Pharmacy and/or Langtry Chemist business in Camp Road Trentham after August 1952. The New Zealand Electoral Rolls recorded in 1954 that Owen Almond Langtry and his wife Elizabeth Maud Langtry were still resident in Camp Road but the 1957 rolls had them residing in Levin.

After August 1952 and before 1956 the pharmacy in Camp Road Trentham became Burberry and Blinkhorn (Trentham) Limited. The proprietor was Harry Wilfred Blinkhorn and James Charles Staunton-Vere Burberry also had an interest in the business.

The original Trentham Pharmacy in Camp Road Trentham was later known as Langtry's Pharmacy or Langtry's chemist before been taken over by Burberry and Blinkhorn (Trentham) Limited.
