

1893 Suffrage Petition & 1893 Otaki Electoral Roll Upper Hutt Women

The Petition

The 1893 Women's Suffrage Petition recording 25,519 signatures has been scanned and is available to research from the Archives New Zealand website. An index of names and residents recorded on the petition can also be researched on the New Zealand History website.

The petition was submitted to Parliament in 1893.

(Reference Google Images website Te Ara the Encyclopedia of New Zealand Petitions women's suffrage)

Kate Sheppard led the suffrage campaign supported by the Women's Christian Temperance Union as well as many other New Zealand women and men.

The first suffrage petition was in 1891 with around 9000 signatures, followed by 1892 with around 20,000 signatures and the final petition in 1893 contained over 25,000 signatures.

The New Zealand male politicians who supported the women's suffrage movement were John Hall, Robert Stout, Julius Vogel, William Fox and John Balance.

It is important to note that the suffrage campaign was a peaceful campaign for all those who were involved.

The Electoral Bill

On 08 September 1893 the Electoral bill was passed in the Upper House. The result was 20 votes to 18. On 19 September 1893 Lord Glasgow the Governor General of New Zealand signed into law the Electoral bill which read;

“The members of the House of Representatives shall be chosen by every person of the age of twenty one years and upwards”.

The change of one word from “Male” to “Person” made New Zealand the first self-governing country in the world to give women the right to vote in parliamentary elections.

The petition organiser Kate Sheppard received a telegram from Lord Glasgow on 19 September. Upper Hutt women had to the 10 October to be register on the main Otaki Electoral roll and 01 & 13 November for the supplementary rolls.

Within six [6] weeks, one hundred and forty five women [145] from the Upper Hutt district registered to vote and are recorded on the 1893 Otaki Electoral Roll.

On 28 November 1893 women in the Otaki Electoral Roll voted for the first time. The results of the Otaki Electorate were;

1,337 votes J G Wilson (Opposition) - 1,138 votes D Fraser (Government)

The 1893 elected minister for the Otaki Electorate was James Glenny Wilson who advocated women’s suffrage.

The White Camellia

The organiser of the Suffrage petition presented a white camellia to Members of Parliament who supported the Electoral bill. For the members of parliament who voted against the bill the organisers presented them with a red Camellia.

The flower became a symbol of the fight for the vote by New Zealand women. There is a white camellia named after Kate Sheppard.

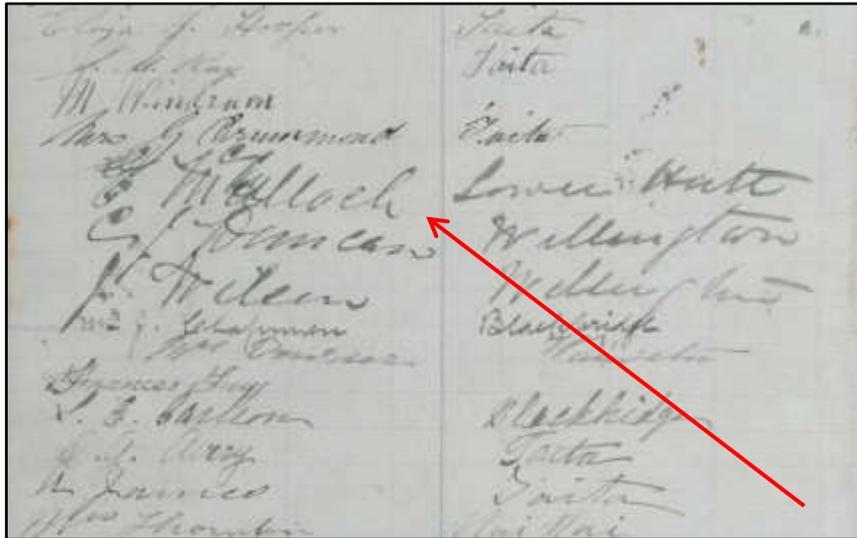

(Reference Google Images New Zealand ten dollar note)

The New Zealand £10 note includes an image of the white camellia along with Kate Sheppard.

Petition Signatures

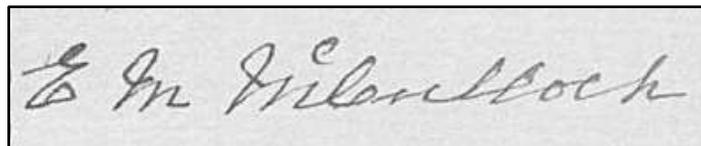

Many New Zealand women signed the petition and recorded their place of residence. Upper Hutt does not appear next to any signatures. This does not mean that Upper Hutt women did not sign the 1893 petition as they may have recorded Wellington as their place of residence.

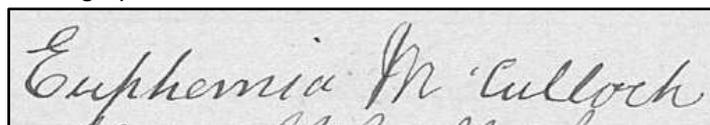

(Archives New Zealand Archway website Digitised 1893 Women Suffrage Petition Roll Sheet 422 Wellington region)

There were five women who signed the petition (sheet number 422) and recorded Lower Hutt as their residence. One was E McCulloch.

The 1893 Otaki Electoral Roll recorded Evelyn Mildred McCulloch a settler and resident of Upper Hutt. Evelyn was residing in the Upper Hutt district with her husband and family and on 02 April 1890 their daughter Effie was admitted to Upper Hutt School. I located a signature on the will of Evelyn Mildred McCulloch and it is very similar to the signature on the suffrage petition, especially the little 'c' for McCulloch.

Evelyn's mother-in-law was Euphemia McCulloch. Euphemia McCulloch resided in Lower Hutt and died in 1898. She did not appear on the 1893 Otaki Electoral Roll but was listed on the 1896 roll as widow resident Alicetown. Euphemia's signature was on a document located in her husband's 1881 probate file. Both Evelyn and Euphemia's signatures are similar to the signature that appears on the suffrage petition.

I have been unable to research the 1891 or 1892 petitions to see if any Upper Hutt women signed these petitions.

Polling Booths – Criterion Hotel & Kaitoke School

The Upper Hutt polling booth in the township of Upper Hutt was the Criterion Hotel.

In the 1840's James Brown built and operated this early hotel with his wife Mary. They named the building the Halfway House followed by the Shepherd Tavern and Shepherd Inn then finally the Criterion Hotel.

(Reference Upper Hutt City Library Recollect website Criterion Hotel P5-87-804)

Around the time of the 1893 voting the hotel did not have a licence. The middle of the building was turned into the new Criterion Hall and other parts of the building used as shops but the local still referred to the building as the Criterion Hotel.

The Kaitoke School was the Polling Booth for Upper Hutt's rural community and the residents of the Kaitoke Railway Station.

In 1893 Miss D Hamilton was the teacher at the school. Miss Hamilton replaced the former school teacher Mr Bedingfield in late 1892. Miss Hamilton did not appear on the 1893 Otaki Electoral Roll. This could be due to either been too young or she did not qualify to vote as she had not resided in the district for the required length of time.

The first women to vote in Upper Hutt

One hundred and forty five women [145] from the Upper Hutt district registered to vote and are recorded on the 1893 Otaki Electoral Roll. On the 28 November 1893 local Upper Hutt women could vote for the first time at either the Criterion Hall Polling Booth in Upper Hutt or the School house in Kaitoke.

The first women to vote in the Upper Hutt district at the Criterion Hotel Polling booth, was Mrs Elizabeth MARTIN (nee Brown).

Evening Post 28 November 1893

A singular interest attached to the recording of the first woman's vote at the Upper Hutt today. When the doors of the polling booth were opened Mr F W Connell, on behalf of a large gathering of electors, presented a bouquet of flowers to the first woman elector who came to the poll. This lady was Mrs A Martin, a resident of 45 years standing. Mrs Martin returned thanks, and said that now that women had their rights in the form of the franchise, she hoped they would exercise them by voting for noble and straightforward men. Some remarks were made by Messrs G and J Brown, and the little ceremony terminated with cheers. Mrs Martin was the first woman to arrive in the district 45 years ago this month. The polling booth where she recorded her vote is the old Criterion Hotel, and was the first house erected, and Mrs Martin, who was a Miss Brown, was the first girl married in the district.

(Reference Papers past website Evening Post 28 November 1893)

Elizabeth's parents were Mary and James BROWN of the Criterion Hotel. Elizabeth's father built the Criterion Hotel. Elizabeth had 5 siblings, Sarah (Wilson), James, George, David and Andrew Brown.

In 1855 Elizabeth nee BROWN (1839-1929) married Alexander Gordon MARTIN (1835-1902) and they had 12 children. The children were Jane (Golder), James, William Henry, Isabella (McGrath), Mary (Cudby), Thomas, Elizabeth (Moynihan), Helen, Alexander Gordon, Emma (Larmer), David and John Alexander Martin.

Mrs Elizabeth MARTIN's daughter was Jane GOLDER of Golder's cottage in Upper Hutt.

#The death occurred at a private hospital in Wellington yesterday morning of Mrs E H Evans a pioneer in scholastic circles. The late Mrs Evans who had been ailing for the past three years was aged 68. Over forty years ago she opened the first school in Mungaroa and was mistress until 10 years ago. She was a lady of many estimable qualities and being gifted with a gracious sympathetic nature was always to the fore in times of stress and need. The demise of such a kindly soul is regretted by a large circle of friends. A family of one son and four daughters is left. Her husband predeceased her three years ago reference Papers past Evening Post newspaper 20 August 1920

#Another pioneer settler Mrs Christina Hagan died on Thursday last at the advance age of 90 years. Mrs Hagan sailed from Ireland for Victoria in the old Cornwall. After living there for about four years she together with her husband arrived in the Dominion in the ship Bella

Schones and landed on the beach opposite Barrett's Hotel. She then took up land in the Upper Hutt district where she was resided for 57 years. "Granny" as she was familiarly called was widely known and greatly respected by all who knew her. She went through all the troublesome times and many were the stirring accounts she could relate of the hardships of the early settlers. She could speak Maori fluently. Her funeral took place on Saturday last at the Upper Hutt and was largely attended. Mrs Hagan leaves a family of four daughters and two sons and numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren reference National Library NZ papers past website Evening Post newspaper 23 April 1917

John and Christina HAGAN were both buried in plot 49 and 50 at St Joseph's Churchyard in Upper Hutt. Many years later all the graves were removed and a new church was built on the site. At the back of the new church is a wall of remembrance which records the names of John and Christina HAGAN.

#Obituary – Elizabeth Kelly - On Sunday last at 3.30 am there passed away at Upper Hutt Mrs Elizabeth Kelly at the age of 72 years. The deceased lady was born at Durham England on 05 June 1840 and came out to New Zealand on the first trip of the "Oliver Lang" in 1855 with her father, Mr Henry Hodgson, her mother and her brother - she herself being 15 years of age at the time. It may be here mentioned that the second trip of the "Oliver Lang" ended in her going ashore at Kaiwharawhara in a sou'easter of similar violence to that of Saturday last. Shortly after their arrival the Hodgson family settled at Trentham where Mr Hodgson who was a blacksmith by trade established the first smithy at Trentham close to where the Trentham [Quinn's Post] Hotel now stands. He continued in business for several years until his death when he was buried at St John's Trentham. His widow and her daughter (the late Mrs Kelly) lived together for a number of years until the former died and was laid to rest alongside her husband. In 1863 Miss Hodgson was married to John Craig of Wellington by whom she had issue a son John T Craig who married Mary fifth daughter of Charles Cudby, and a daughter Mary who married William second son of the late Alexander Martin senior. Some three or four years after his marriage Mr Craig went to the Otago Goldfields with his wife's brother (Mr Hodgson). In 1867 the two mates left the diggings for Dunedin and were caught in a violent snowstorm and were missing for some time. When the bodies were discovered it was found the two men had camped out and perished in the snow. Their remains were interred in Otago. Mrs Craig and her children lived with her parents until 1869 when she married the late John Kelly a steady industrious man employed by the Barton family. Mr Kelly saved sufficient money to purchase fifty acres of land extending from the main road to the Hutt River, on which he and his wife carried on dairy operations until his death. Mr Kelly fell heavily on a big tree he was passing over at Akatarawa sustaining serious injuries to his side. A few months later in 1883 he succumbed and was buried at St Joseph's Upper Hutt. Mrs Kelly continued to work the farm until 1892 when she rented it to her son Mr J T Craig and retired into private life. The holding is valued at £4,800. Mrs Kelly and her two cronies who have predeceased her, Mrs G Brown senior and Mrs Greenwood senior, were familiar figures in the central portion of the township. On fine days the "three young maids" as they were affectionately termed by younger matrons (probably because their combined ages totalled some 225 years) might be seen, clad in ample skirts and with heads ensconced in cotton sun-bonnets with deep curtains, discussing the newest baby of one or other of their numerous marriage connections, or calling to mind pleasant or thrilling incidents of the old times when they and the Upper Hutt settlement were young together. For some sixteen years past the deceased lady has not been in the best of health and her death is ascribed to heart failure. The funeral which was largely attended by friends and relatives from far and near took place at St Joseph's Upper Hutt on Wednesday morning, Father L J Daly conducting the service. Deceased was laid to rest alongside the late John Kelly reference Papers past website Hutt Valley Independent newspaper 02 November 1912

#One of the early identities of the Hutt Valley Mrs Alfred Keys passed away yesterday at her late residence William street Petone. Mrs Keys who was a daughter of the late William Welch of Taita, arrived in New Zealand in the ship Oriental in 1840 at the age of 2½ years. A matter of interest in Mrs Keys' life is the fact that with the possible exception of one month she spent the whole of her life in the Hutt Valley. Her late husband Mr Alfred Keys of Upper Hutt predeceased her about thirteen years. There are four sons all of whom reside at Upper Hutt also one daughter Mrs J E Clark of Oriental Street Petone. A brother resides in Masterton and a sister in Auckland reference Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 03 August 1918 page 9 & Wairarapa Age newspaper 05 August 1918

#Mr James Martin - After living in Upper Hutt for the 88 years of his life Mr James Martin died recently. His mother, who arrived in New Zealand with her parents in 1840 lived to be over 90. His father Alexander Gordon Martin settled in Upper Hutt in 1850. Mr James Martin married a daughter of Mr Charles Cudby another old settler Mrs Martin predeceasing him in 1932. He joined the Railways Department as a youth and retired in 1918 after more than 40 years of service. Mr Martin was a member of the Upper Hutt Town Board for some time and was also a prominent member of the Roman Catholic Church. He was one of the best known and popular guards running on the Hutt railway line for many years. Mr Martin's maternal grandparents opened the first hotel at Upper Hutt on the corner where the Bank of Australia now stands. Mr Martin is survived by two sons Frank and Basil and two daughters Mrs Daniel Boyle and Sister Eileen Norbet of Upper Hutt. His eldest son Horace was killed in the Great War. Three brothers and two sisters are also still living reference Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 09 July 1945
