George AVERY died 07 October 1903 Taita Lower Hutt New Zealand

Evening Post newspaper 03 November 1903

An interesting biography of the late Mr George Avery, who died at Taita on the 8th ult., at the age of 82, appears in the Pahiatua Herald. Deceased, who left sons and daughters to the number of sixteen scattered through the colony, was a native of Staplehurst, Kent, and arrived with his parents in the ship Bolton in 1840. He was then a youth of 19, and assisted his father to build a hut for the family, who remained on board until shelter was provided. In the Maori troubles of the forties, Mr Avery, who came of a fighting stock, joined the Hutt Militia under Captain Rhodes, and rendered distinguished service, for which in later years he was awarded the New Zealand war medal. His reminiscences of the early days of settlement were very interesting. Very few of the old band of Hutt Militia now remain. The survivors are enumerated as follows by the paper from which we quote - G Whiteman Upper Hutt –Milne Taita, G Farmer Mauawatu - Swanson.

The death is announced of Mr William Tandy who was probably the oldest resident of the Hutt district. He came to the colony in the ship Lord William Bentinck in the year 1841, and at once became foreman of Mr Molesworth's farm at the Hutt. While living in that district he was one of those who to defend their homes against a rising of the Maoris. After this Mr Tandy took up land at Wainuiomata and afterwards Taita where he remained and a few years ago when he went to live with Mr D Dick at Wainuiomata. Mr Tandy was 96 years of age and leaves 16 grandchildren, 50 great-grandchildren and was also a great-great-grandfather.

#A Strange Occurrence - A paragraph with the above heading, copied from a Nelson paper, appeared in our yesterday's issue. The Chief Immigration Officer has given us the following satisfactory explanation. At the time the children were removed from the Orphan Asylum at Christchurch to Lyttelton, strict enquiries were made with a view, if possible, of discovering what persons were liable for the maintenance of some of them, and the Mr Avery referred to was traced to Nelson by the aid of the Commissioner of Police. He was communicated with, and in answer requested that his children might be sent to him, as he had "provided a home for them where he could attend to them himself". He also directed that a telegram might be sent to him, "to know when they sail, so as I can know when to meet them at Nelson". The children were sent as Avery desired, he stating in the letter we have been quoting from that he was not able to come to Christchurch and attend to them myself", also, that he thought they were "old enough to undertake the voyage by themselves, as it is only a few hours passage". On seeing the paragraph in the Lyttelton Times, the Immigration Officer, in his capacity of administrator of charitable aid, at once sent a telegram to the Nelson Provincial Secretary. The following is his reply "Stephen Avery has taken charge of his children" reference Papers past website Star newspaper 03 September 1870

#Obituary - Death of Mr Stephen Avery - Another of the pioneer settlers passed away on Monday in the, person of Mr Stephen Avery. Deceased had not been in good health for some time. He came to this Colony with his parents in the year 1840, arriving at Port Nicholson (now Wellington) by the ship Bolton. He resided at the Hutt for some time, and afterwards came to this district, having resided at Richmond for about thirty two years. He took a keen interest in local affairs, was a member of the Richmond School Committee, also of the Nelson Agricultural and Pastoral Association from its institution. He served well and faithfully on the Committee of the latter Association, rendering valuable services on the Show days, his excellent knowledge of horses and other live-stock being acknowledged. He lived a good life, and was much esteemed by those who knew him. His widow and family have the sympathy of their fellow settlers, also his two sisters, Mrs I M Hill of this city, and Mrs Charles Baywell of Richmond. The funeral will take place this afternoon, at half-past two, when no doubt there will be a large following reference Papers past website Colonist newspaper 06 October 1902
