Letters from Little Folks

Dear Dot – On the 10th November I went as far as the Stanley Brook hills, and after I had my dinner I went shooting. I saw a lot of quail, but did not shoot any. I went past a hare. I saw a lot of rabbits. Coming home the bullocks ran away. We went in the bullock dray.

Yours truly LEONARD BAIGENT Pigeon Valley 13 November

Accident – R J Harvey killed - Yesterday morning while Renwick James Harvey and his brother were falling a large rata in Baigent's Akatarawa bush, the tree, which was connected by a large number of vines to trees higher up the hill side, in falling brought down trees, soil, and roots, on top of Renwick Harvey. The accident occurred at 10.30, but it was an hour before Leonard Baigent and the victim's brother succeeded in uncovering the body, life being then extinct. Deceased who was only 24 years of age, was a single man. His parents reside at Hawera. Harvey had only been working a week in Baigent's bush. Mr Riddell, SM will hold an inquest at 2.30 pm today at the courthouse.

Obituary - Mary Sophia Baigent - We regret to have to chronicle the death of Mrs Leonard Baigent, of Akatarawa, on Wednesday, 28th January, at the early age of 29 years. The deceased lady, who was the eldest daughter of Archer Earl Tuckwell, of Hamua, was married in 1904 to Leonard Baigent and took up residence at Akatarawa where she remained until the day before her death. It was only within the week prior to her death that she complained of slight headaches of an intermittent acuteness. As she did not get relief, Dr Kemp was called in, and on her husband's suggestion Mrs Baigent was taken to Mrs Huggins private hospital on the Tuesday so as to be closer to the doctor in case of more serious developments. Mrs Tuckwell joined her daughter in the evening and retired to rest with her. At 4.45 on Wednesday morning Mrs Baigent showed signs of collapse and expired a few minutes later. Death was due, to an abscess on the brain. The interment took place on 30 January at St John's Trentham, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The burial service being conducted by the Rev. J H Sykes, vicar. The deceased lady left two sons and a daughter to mourn her demise.

Weddings - A quiet wedding took place recently at St Hilda Church, Upper Hutt, when Gladys Minnie, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs John Whiteman, Windsor Park, Upper Hutt, was married to Clarence Earl, eldest son of Mr and Mrs L J Baigent, Palfrey Avenue, Upper Hutt. The bride, who was escorted by her brother, Mr P Whiteman, wore a gown of ivory georgette. Her beautiful veil of lace was caught on each side with orange blossom, and she carried a bouquet of cyclamen roses and maidenhair fern. The bridesmaid was Miss Julia Whiteman, who wore a pretty frock of pink georgette trimmed with silver rosebuds. She wore a cream felt hat, and carried a pink posy. Mr Claude Baigent was best man. After the reception the bride and bridegroom left for the North, the bride travelling in a navy blue marocain frock, with fur coat and hat to match.

Weddings - A wedding was solemnised on Saturday at St David's Presbyterian Church, Upper Hutt, between Sylvia Moana, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs L J Baigent, Upper Hutt, and Leonard Edward Rosenberg, son of Mr and Mrs Rosenberg, Hataitai. The Rev Jas McCaw officiated, and was assisted by the Rev Mr Hunt, of Upper Hutt. Mrs Whiteman presided, at the organ. The bride entered the church with her father, wearing a beautiful model ivory, satin gown with uneven hem, heavily, jewelled and beaded with pearls, her veil was clasped with orange blossoms. She carried a sheath of cream roses and lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Thea Baigent (chief) and Miss Joyce Rosenberg. They wore early Victorian frocks of pink satin and gold lace, picture hats of pink crinoline and ribbon, and carried posies of zinnias and maidenhair fern. Two little flower girls were also in attendance on the bride Miss Fay Baigent and Dawn Cook, who wore frilled frocks of blue and pink net, with bandeaux and posies of maidenhair fern, and pink and cream sweet peas. The bride's, mother wore brown floral satin crepe de chine, with hat to tone, and carried a bouquet of bronze dahlias and roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a cinnamon satin frock and hat, with bouquet of salmon pink dahlias, with maidenhair fern. Mr Jack Pearson was best man, and Mr Claude Baigent groomsman. The bride's travelling dress was of navy blue satin trimmed with lemon georgette, navy picture hat, and an ermine stole, the gift of the bridegroom. Among the guests were Mrs Tuckwell (Hamua), the bride's grandmother, who wore a navy satin celanese frock embroidered with old gold, with satin coat and hat to match, with posy of heliotrope. The reception was held at the Druids Hall, where over two hundred guests were entertained. Mr and Mrs Rosenberg left by motor for a tour of the north.
