#Death of Mr John Blundell – (Per Press Association) Wellington 11 January [1922] – Obituary John Blundell of the Evening Post proprietary - Mr John Blundell was born in Ireland in 1841 and came with his father Mr Henry Blundell to New Zealand via Victoria with Mr David Curle. Mr Henry Blundell established the Havelock Mail at the time of the Wakamarina gold rush. When the rush was over in February 1865 they removed to Wellington and established the Evening Post as a daily. Mr Curle withdrew from the venture leaving Mr Blundell to carry on with his three sons. In 1874 having realised a competence he handed the paper over to his sons, Messrs John, Henry Thomas and Louis Blundell. Mr H T Blundell died in Sydney in 1894 and since then the business has been carried on by the remaining members of the family. The late Mr John Blundell was widely respected in Wellington both in newspaper and general circles and news of his death will be read with regret by his friends reference Papers past website Horowhenua Chronicle newspaper 11 January 1922 page 3

Blundell Way was named after Sir Edward Denis Blundell GCMG, GCVO, KBE, QSO (1907-1984) 12th Governor General of New Zealand 1972-1977. Sir Blundell's father was Henry Percy Fabian Blundell (1872-1961), grandfather was John Blundell (1841-1922) and great grandfather Henry Blundell (1813-1878). Henry was the founder of the Evening Post newspaper in Wellington and in 1870s held freehold sections No 11 & 33 at Wallaceville. The Bedplate Press Printing Museum in Silverstream restored the original 1852 Albion press that printed the early Evening Post for Henry Blundell.

#Death – Mr Arthur Osborne Gibbes, accountant to the Treasury, died on Thursday morning at the age of 57 years. Deceased who had been in ill health for some time, was born at Whangarei, and was a brother of Sir Edward Gibbes, Secretary for Education. He had nearly completed forty years' service, and his death will be, deeply regretted by a very large circle of friends and acquaintances. In the earlier days of Wellington the late Mr Gibbes occupied a leading position in the athletic world. He was a prominent player in the ranks of the Wellington Football Club, and was also well known in the rowing world. He leaves a widow and one daughter, Mrs C Holmes, whose husband (formerly of Messrs
