#Mrs Eliza Russell of Whiteman's Valley who died recently at the age of 82 was a very old identity of the Wellington district. She was the daughter of the late Mr Thomas Charles Butler and was born in 1844 in the neighbourhood of what is now Cuba Street. Her father came to New Zealand in the year 1840 by the ship "Coromandel". Mr and Mrs Russell were married in 1869 and lived some time at Alicetown and later at Stokes Valley finally settling at Whiteman's Valley and living there for forty years. Mr Edward Russell survived his wife and there are four sons and one daughter also one brother remaining (Mr Roland Butler of the Upper Hutt). There are sixteen grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren. In the early days Mr and Mrs Butler shared in the excitements and dangers of pioneers and Mrs Butler was always admired for her bright and fearless disposition being as well exceedingly kind and charitable. A great-uncle of Mrs Russell was the Rev J G Butler who came out to New Zealand in 1818 travelling and teaching the Natives till 1826 when he left for Sydney. It was on his recommendation that Mr T C Butler came out to this country. The Rev Mr Butler returned here in 1840 with the New Zealand Company's settlers holding a New South Wales commission as Magistrate. He lived at Petone for some years and died there. One of his daughters was the wife of Mr Barton a well-known resident of the Wairarapa at the time reference Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 18 May 1926 p 13

#Obituary - Mr Thomas Russell - The death occurred suddenly at his residence in Whiteman's Valley, Upper Hutt, of Mr Thomas Russell. Born at Lower Hutt in 1871, Mr Russell came from a well-known pioneering family. He was closely connected with the first resident clergyman of the Church of England Missionary Society in New Zealand, the Rev. J G Butler, who arrived in New Zealand in 1818, where he did missionary work among the Natives until 1826. He then went back to England and returned with the late Mr Russell's grandparents in 1840. In 1892 Mr Russell took up bush land in Whiteman's Valley, where he had farmed ever since. At the time of his death he was a partner in the firm of T Russell and Sons, Ltd., Upper Hutt, and was one of the oldest members of the Wellington Trotting Club. He was known throughout the Hutt Valley for his steadfastness and charitable disposition. His wife, who predeceased him twelve years ago, was formerly Miss Ellen Swanson, daughter of the late Mr Charles Swanson. He is survived by two sons, Messrs E E and L T Russell, Upper Hutt, and one daughter, Mrs J Bond, Carterton reference Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 25 October 1944 page 6

- #Obituary - Robert Butler - Robert Butler, an old-time Trentham resident, died yesterday week in the Carterton "Buchanan Home" aged 79. His health had been failing for some time but he was only admitted to the institution a few days before his death. He arrived in New Zealand circa 1862 in the ship "Terrepi" and stayed at Porirua with the Champion's. He was employed on Cannard's contract building the first Wellington wharf. He afterwards took up a 25 acre lot at Trentham somewhere near where Routley now lives. The whole valley being bush in which several sawmills were cutting, and small clearings here and there. Some six years later he and a number of Hutt Valley settlers crossed the Rimutaka, and in 1873 he and the late James Stevens engaged in farming on land they had purchased at Belvedere. His wife died in 1896. Only two children survive - William Butler (in the King Country) and Mrs H Miller (Carterton). At the funeral which took place yesterday at Clareville cemetery last Sunday, the Oddfellows headed the cortege. Deceased was one. of the oldest Oddfellows in the district, had been captain of the Carterton Fire Brigade reference Papers past website Hutt Valley Independent newspaper 06 February 1915 page 2

#Elizabeth HAINES died 1859 New Zealand reference RGO NZ death registration 1859 folio website 1859/1221 age 86 born circa 1773

#Died – Haines - On the 28th April in her 86th year, Mrs Elizabeth Haines, the mother of Mr Thomas Butler, of Blackland Farm, the oldest female, and probably the oldest person in the province. Not with standing her great age, her faculties appeared unimpaired to the very last moment of her life; she saw, heard, and remembered more accurately than many persons of less than half her age, and even on her death bed strongly manifested that kind

attention to the wants of others, and that reluctance to give the slightest trouble, for which she is well known to have been always so remarkable reference Papers past website Colonist newspaper 03 May 1859 page 2

#On the 28th in her 86th year Mrs Elizabeth Haines better known as the mother of Mr Thomas Butler of Blacklands Farm. She was one of the females who arrived in the colony was probably its oldest inhabitant and retained to the last hour of her life the most complete possession of all her faculties. Even on her death bed she could hear a low whisper remember the most minute details of events in which she had taken a part and exhibited that womanly solitude for the comfort of everyone around her, for which she had all her life been so remarkable reference Papers past website Nelson Examiner and New Zealand Chronicle 04 May 1859 page 2
