Upper Hutt Weekly Review newspaper 08 April 1938

Silverstream Women's Institute Obituary – Mrs Chapman-Taylor – It is with great regret we have to announce the passing of one of our most valued member, Mrs Chapman-Taylor whose death was a great shock to all. Besides being our late treasurer Mrs Chapman-Taylor took a great interest in the Dramatic and Arts and Crafts Circles of the Institute and it was her design for the 1937 Institute Xmas card that won first place in the competition among all institute throughout New Zealand. Prior to the interment at Akatarawa a service was held at St John's Church Trentham and was largely attended by Silverstream Women's Institute members who took the opportunity of paying their respects to their late comrade by forming a guard of honour to and from the church. The sympathy of all goes out to Mr Chapman-Taylor, son and daughters in their sad loss.

#Sygrove-Chapman-Taylor – St John's Church Trentham was decorated with Christmas lilies and pink and mauve hydrangeas recently when Ella eldest daughter of Mr J W Chapman-Taylor and the late Mrs Chapman-Taylor of "I-Braesil" Silverstream was married to Peter Stace third son of Mr and Mrs Fred J Sygrove of "Raukawa" Upper Hutt. The Rev Mr Sheld officiated and Mrs Tomlin was at the organ. The bride who was given away by her father wore a magnolia bridal gown with veil and orange blossoms and carried a beautiful bouquet of Christmas lilies. Miss Flora Chapman-Taylor who attended her sister was in mauve taffeta and carried a bouquet in shades of pink and mauve. Little Ann Cooke niece of the bride and Robin Sygrove, brother of the bridegroom were flower girl and page boy respectively. Both were dressed in mauve and made a pretty picture as they followed the bride into church walking hand in hand. The bridegroom's brother Mr Scott Sygrove was best man. At the close of the service Mrs Robinson sang "Where'ver you walk". The wedding breakfast was held at the Brown Owl where the guests were received by Mrs Sygrove mother of the bridegroom and by Mrs W R Croke sister of the bride. When the bride and bridegroom left for the north, the bride travelled in a flowered model frock with coat and hat and accessories to match reference Upper Hutt Leader 23 January 1941
