Uncomfortable rumours are rife as to the intention of the Hutt Maoris who are selling off their lands and stock. The fact is that a portion of the Ngatitua have sold a section of 116 acres to Mr Pierce Cotter. That they intend to migrate somewhere is evident and a report which we are unable to verify states that they are going to Taranaki where fighting whether with us or between different tribes is not said will probable ensure before long. We do not wish to create alarm. The reports current on the subject appear to have a certain amount of consistency and though distinctly unable to vouch for the truth we are also as unable to contradict them.

Mr Pierce Cotter, of Woodside an old and esteemed settler passed away to rest on Thursday last. Mr Cotter arrived in Wellington between forty and fifty years ago and opened a timber yard in Ghuzuee Street opposite where St. Paul's Church now stands. From thence he went to Silverstream where he very successfully engaged in milling. Then he took up a large area of land in the Wairarapa where he has resided ever since. He was 79 years of age at the time of his death. He was buried in the Greytown cemetery on Sunday, and not 'withstanding the day was cold and wet a large number of settlers testified their respect for the departed settler by following his remains to the grave.

A bye meet of the Wairarapa hounds took place at Kuratawhiti, near Greytown on Thursday, over the property of the late Mr Pierce Cotter.
