Evening Post newspaper 29 July 1941

Mr John O Duff - Mr John Owen Duff an old and highly-esteemed railway servant died recently at his residence King Street Upper Hutt. He was known as an able and conscientious officer who always had the interests of the Department at heart, and was known by a wide circle of railwaymen in both islands. He was born at Waitahuna Gully Otago in the stirring days of the gold rush. At the age of 16 he joined the clerical branch of the New Zealand Railways. He held the position of stationmaster at Allanton Middlemarch Hyde and Ravensbourne. He was then transferred to the North Island as relieving officer. Later, he was stationmaster at Mangaweka then the terminus of the Main Trunk line. From there he was promoted in 1904 to the staff of the head office as assistant staff clerk. Here he remained until his retirement in 1925. He lived in Petone from 1904 to 1921 and in Upper Hutt from 1921 until his death. He was always an active member of the Presbyterian Church and during his retirement at Upper Hutt he took a keen interest in civic affairs being a member of the Upper Hutt Borough Council and a Justice of the Peace.
