Police Court Masterton 18 April – Samuel Hounslow stated that about six months ago he saw an elderly man very drunk in Tucks bar. He tendered 1s 6d for a bed three or four times but was refused. He afterwards went out of the bar into the veranda and attempted to enter the house by the other door. Mr Tuck either struck or pushed him off the veranda on to the stones where he lay senseless for a minute or two. He was then helped to Bob the tinkers where he was laid up for two or three days

A Maintenance Case - At Masterton yesterday afternoon a claim was brought against Mrs S Hounslow and Messrs W, T, S, H and C Hounslow, under the Destitute Persons Act, for the maintenance of Samuel Hounslow, senior. The Bench was occupied by Mr W Haselden, SM, Mr T Duncan, Secretary of the North Wairarapa Benevolent Society, prosecuting. Sir C A Pownall, for certain of the defendants, stated that Mr S Hounslow had been parted from his family for the past twenty-five years, and Mrs Hounslow, who had small properties, had to be assisted by her sons. Mr S Hounslow was a practical bootmaker, and had supported himself until about three months ago. Mrs Susannah Hounslow gave evidence to the effect that her husband had left her twenty-eight years ago returning three years afterwards and subsequently going away in about four years, since which time she had never heard of him. After deducting rates her properly left her an income of about 13s per week. Her sons helped her to a certain extent. His Worship decided to adjourn the case till next sitting of the court to enable certain information regarding S Hounslow's movements and condition to be supplied by the Custodian of the Wellington Old Men's Home.

Accident at Kimbolton – A Lady Killed – A fatal accident occurred about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon on Gipsy Hill about three miles above Kimbolton on the Rangiwahia road. A double buggy with a pair of horses conveying mails and passengers to Rangiwahia was being driven by Mr Chas Hansen down the hill referred to when the brake failed to act. The horses immediately bolted, with the result that the driver was thrown from his seat. An elderly lady, Mrs Hounslow, senr., Masterton, aged 78 years, fell between the wheels, and was dragged some distance before getting clear of the vehicle. She expired shortly afterwards. The other occupants were Mrs Hounslow, junr., and her daughter, 12 years of age, who managed to jump clear of the buggy without injury. The mother, however, was less fortunate, and in jumping fell on her knees and chest, with the result that she sustained several nasty bruises, and a severe shock to the system. The driver, Mr Hansen, got severely shaken and bruised, and sustained a slight wound behind one knee. The body of the deceased lady was brought into Poole's Hotel about 5 pm, and the other sufferers arrived soon after. The latter, according to latest reports, are progressing favourably. Much sympathy has been expressed for the sufferers in their sad bereavement. An inquest will probably be held tomorrow.

The Buggy Fatality - Further Particulars, How Mrs Hounslow Met Her Death - Feilding This Day - The cause of the sad death of the late Mrs Hounslow was the bolting of a pair of horses attached to a buggy in which she was travelling at the time from Feilding to Rangiwahia, on a visit to her daughter, Mrs A W Rule. A passenger from Masterton to Rangiwahia, after leaving the train at Feilding, usually travels by coach to Rangiwahia but a double-seated buggy and pair was specially engaged, in which the party were to drive to their destination. When within a few miles of the end of their journey, the horses got control of the driver, and bolted down a steep hill. The driver either fell or jumped out. Mrs Hounslow, senr., was thrown out, and through her mackintosh catching in the brake, she was dragged for some distance. When she was picked up she was almost unconscious, dying within a few minutes. Mrs H Hounslow and her daughter, who were travelling with Mrs Hounslow, senr., jumped out, the former escaping with bruises, and the latter without any injury whatever. The body of deceased will be entrained for Masterton today, and the funeral will take place there on Friday.

A Large number of relatives and friends of the late Mrs Hounslow sen., followed her remains to the Masterton cemetery yesterday afternoon. The Rev P C W Earce Anglican minister officiated at the grave-side in an impressive manner. The attendance testified to the esteem and respect with which the deceased lady was regarded in Masterton and the sympathy extended to the bereaved family. Amongst the mourners were five sons of deceased, Messrs John Hounslow (Petone), Charles Hounslow (Wanganui), William Hounslow (Pahiatua) and Thomas Hounslow & Harry Hounslow (Masterton) besides other relatives.
