Wellington Independent newspaper 10 May 1870

A well-known Wellington settler Mr Charles Howard died in the Hospital on Sunday night. He arrived in this colony some 20 years ago in the Ancient Mariner and has since worked energetically and successfully. He was taken ill about a fortnight ago while working at the new Government House and was taken to the Hospital where he gradually sank. Mr Howard was well known and well liked in Wellington where amongst other good qualities he was remarkable for his readiness to assist in every case of distress brought under his notice.
