Caution to the Public - (To the Editor of the Wellington Independent) Sir, A letter from a builder named Ockenden appeared in your columns, this day under the above heading, giving what professed to be a statement of the case Ockenden v Stevens and requesting your opinion of it. Before you give it, it may interest both you and the public to know that what Ockenden calls the facts of the case were merely stated by himself on oath, without the slightest corroboration and were distinctly denied upon oath by the defendant Stevens. The Resident Magistrate merely decided which was the most worthy of credit. I am, Sir, Your obedient servant, Spectator 27th June 1865.

Evening Post newspaper 05 February 1878

Robbery at Pakuratahi – Walter Ockenden was charged with stealing a bag of oats, a case of shot, caps &c., several bottles of spirits and other articles, the property of Hon G M Waterhouse of the Wairarapa. George Harris a man in the employ of Mr Waterhouse, said that on the 20th January, he was in charge of a waggon filled with goods he arrived at the Golden Fleece Hotel, Pakuratahi in the afternoon, and left the waggon with the goods in it until the following day covering it with a tarpaulin. Ongoing to it about 4.30 next morning he found the fore part of the tarpaulin lifted up, the rope which secured it having been untied. He missed a case, but he did not know what it contained. He had been since informed that it contained shot, chains, and locks; a case of gin, and a bag of oats were also missing. Ockendon was about the place all day, but witness did not speak to him, about a week afterwards, witness received information which induced him to go to prisoner, who said he had the shot, &c, which he had picked up on the road, the case being broken, and the contents scattered on the ground. Constable Lyster said he knew prisoner, who was a carpenter, living near the Pakuratahi Hotel witness went to his house on Thursday, with a search warrant; he found nothing; afterwards he went to Kaitoke, where he saw the prisoner, and asked him about the missing things he said he found the case of shot, &c, on the road, early on Sunday morning the case had been burned, and he emptied the shot into a keg there were half-a-dozen bags of shot, two being broken he denied all knowledge of the case of gin or bag of oats. Prisoner was remanded for a week, for further evidence.

Evening Post newspaper 22 December 1930

The ninetieth birthday of Mrs Ockenden, Tennyson Street was celebrated yesterday when all but one of her family of two sons and four daughters were present with nearly all of her thirty grandchildren. Mrs Ockenden was born in Birmingham in 1840 coming to New Zealand when she was 23 landing in Lyttelton in 1863. The same year she was married to Mr Walter Ockenden. Her husband predeceased her thirty year ago. They were very well and favourably known in the Manawatu district and also in Masterton. Mrs Ockenden also has many friends in Wellington where she had lived since the deaths of her husband.
