Evening Post newspaper 16 February 1945

Obituary - Mr Francis H Wilkie - The death occurred recently at Upper Hutt of Mr F H Wilkie at the age of 74 years. Mr Wilkie was a well-known New Zealand rifleman having joined the Upper Hutt Club over 40 years ago. He was champion shot of the club for six years and first represented New Zealand in 1893. He was a member of the New Zealand team that visited Bisley England in 1905 where he won the "Daily Graphic" Cup with a score of 158 out of a possible of 160 his last seventeen shots being all bulls. Mr Wilkie toured "Australia with the New Zealand team in 1906 where again his shooting was remarkable. At one time he was secretary of the Trotting Club when the races were held at Quinn's Post. As a cricketer he was a prolific scorer with the bat in his young days and was also interested in Rugby. He was a foundation member of the Upper Hutt Town Board and served on that body for some while. He leaves a widow and two daughters.
