Eliza Bentinck WHITE was born about 1842 but details are unknown. Her parents were Mary (born about 1808) and Joseph (born about 1809) WHITE.

I do not know when Peter WILKIE came to New Zealand.

Voyage of the Lord William Bentinck departed London England 08 January 1841 arrived Wellington New Zealand 19/24 May 1841. There were 5 births aboard the ship.

- Joseph WHITE age 31 Show maker and Agricultural Labourer
- Mary WHITE age 32
- Male WHITE age 10
- Female WHITE age 5
- Female WHITE age 2

And (Charles White and family)

- Thomas BUTLER age 30 agricultural Labourer
- Elizabeth BUTLER age 27
- Male BUTLER age 6
- Male BUTLER age 2

Mary Ann Bentinick BUTLER was born at sea on the voyage to New Zealand on the “Lord William Bentinck”. She was born not long after the departed England on 08 January 1841.

Perhaps Eliza Bentinick WHITE was also born on the voyage to New Zealand on the ship “Lord William Bentinck” but further research will have to be done to confirm this.

- #Obituary – Mr E I Wilkie - The sudden death at his home at Paremata of Mr Edward Irving Wilkie aged 52 removed from the head office of the Government Architect's branch of the Public Works Department one of its best known and most popular members. Mr Wilkie was born at Upper Hutt his family being well known in that district. As a member of the Auckland Infantry Battalion he left with the 5th Reinforcements of the 1st NZEF for the Great War landing at Gallipoli where he was seriously wounded. He suffered for years with cheerful fortitude the after effects of his war service. Mr

Wilkie some years ago was a very keen tennis player and a member of the Upper Hutt Tennis Club. He was also a popular member of the Paremata Golf Club and winner of many trophies. He had been in the clerical branch of the Government Architect's office for more than 20 years up to the time of his death. He leaves his wife Mrs M Wilkie of Paremata reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 13 June 1945 page 8

#Obituary - Mr Francis H Wilkie - The death occurred recently at Upper Hutt of Mr F H Wilkie at the age of 74 years. Mr Wilkie was a well-known New Zealand rifleman having joined the Upper Hutt Club over 40 years ago. He was champion shot of the club for six years and first represented New Zealand in 1893. He was a member of the New Zealand team that visited Bisley England in 1905 where he won the "Daily Graphic" Cup with a score of 158 out of a possible of 160 his last seventeen shots being all bulls. Mr Wilkie toured "Australia with the New Zealand team in 1906 where again his shooting was remarkable. At one time he was secretary of the Trotting Club when the races were held at Quinn's Post. As a cricketer he was a prolific scorer with the bat in his young days and was also interested in Rugby. He was a foundation member of the Upper Hutt Town Board and served on that body for some while. He leaves a widow and two daughters reference National Library of NZ Evening Post newspaper 16 February 1945 page 3
