James WILSON was born about 1829 in Ireland perhaps Belfast. The birth year was calculated from his age at time of death

(Reference RGO NZ death registration 1912 folio website 1912/1461 age 83 years born about 1929)

James WILSON was a soldier of the 65th Regiment of Foot. In the Muster Records of the 65th Regiment of Foot, James gave his age as 17 years 11 months old when he enlisted in Kinnegad County Westmeath on 23 April 1845.

According to the information on the Muster Rolls James WILSON would have been born around May 1827. Some also believe that James came from County Cavan a 14 hour walk north of Kinnegad in Westmeath Ireland. The naming pattern of James's children are evident in the names of the children of a James WILSON of County Cavan.

James WILSON was soldier of 65th Regiment of Foot. The 65th Regiment of Foot departed 18 May 1846 Woolwich England on ship "Java" and arrived 14 October 1846 at Sydney New South Wales Australia. They departed Australia and arrived 19 November 1846 at Kororareka, Bay of Islands New Zealand. Part of the 65th was sent to Wellington on the ship "Driver" and arrived there 15 December 1846. The remainder of the 65th arrived at Wellington in 1847

Sarah Mary BROWN was born about 1831 Paisley Scotland. Her parents where Mary nee Flynn and James Brown

Sarah Mary BROWN her parents and siblings arrived 1841 in New Zealand on the ship "Blenheim" and settled in Upper Hutt

James WILSON married about 1849 New Zealand Sarah Mary BROWN

James and Sarah had a daughter Mary WILSON who was born 1850 New Zealand

James and Sarah WILSON had a total of thirteen children but I have only been able to locate eleven of the children. Two children may have been born between 1850 (Mary) and 1854 (William Henry).

James and Sarah had a son William Henry WILSON who was born 1854 New Zealand

[1868] To His Honour The Superintendent
Sir

I am informed that the law for protecting animals in this Province enables you to appoint Rangers in the Several Districts. I therefore beg respectfully to offer my services for the Upper Hutt. After nine year' s service in the 65th Regiment I purchased my discharge which will bear testimony of my character. The Gov. also gave me the usual amount of land. I took Service with the Honourable Mr Peter after leaving the army and remained four years in his employment. I beg to refer your Honour to him. Having a large and young family a post of this sort would be of great service to me. Hoping you will take my case into consideration is the earnest wish and prayer of your Honour's most obedient Servant

Upper Hutt 23 September 1868

Sir

Is a Minister of any denomination allowed to be Schoolmaster in a National School built by the Government and the people with or without Government aid. The reason why I ask the question is because the Committee of the Upper Hutt School have Appointed the Revd. Dan Desbois to be permanent schoolmaster ~~in the Upper Hutt~~ in the place of Mr Carrick who died about Two weeks ago.

I remain your humble and obedient Servant – James WILSON

Obituary - James Wilson - Mr James Wilson, one of Upper Hutt's early settlers, who for some years has resided in Rangitikei, died at Makino on Sunday last, being 83 years of age. Deceased had an eventful career. Born in Ireland, he came 67 years ago to New Zealand with the 65th Regiment, and took part in Hone Heke's war and several other campaigns. He afterwards settled at Upper Hutt, where he married a sister, of James Brown, sen., and Mrs Alex Martin. While at Upper Hutt he acted as instructor to the local militia at the blockhouse in the rear of the Trentham post office. After farming at Upper Hutt for a number of years, he went to Makino, where he has resided for some thirty years past. Deceased had been ailing for the past five years. Mrs Wilson, who is an invalid, survives her husband, with six sons and five daughters. The sons are Messrs W H and J (Feilding), J J (Christchurch), A F (Levin), G E (Auckland), and David (Wellington). Mrs McLeod (Makino) is the eldest daughter, and the others are unmarried.

Hutt Valley Independent newspaper 30 November 1912

Obituary – Sarah WILSON nee BROWN – On Friday of last week at Makino another of the Upper Hutt pioneer settlers, Mrs James Wilson entered into rest at the age of 82 years. Deceased was a native of Paisley in Scotland, and left the Clyde for New Zealand in the ship “Blenheim” in September 1840 and arrived at Port Nicholson on Christmas Eve of the same year. Deceased who was the eldest daughter of the late James Brown senior, (the first European to take up residence east of the Gorge) lived with her parents at Lower and Upper Hutt until she married the late James Wilson some 62 years ago. It is stated on reliable authority that the couple reared a family of a dozen children and paid for their education the husband’s wages at the time being six shillings per day. The Wilson’s removed to Makino some thirty years ago and have resided there ever since. Mrs Wilson and her husband (who died on June 7th this year at the age of 83) were invalids for some little time past. In both instances the cause of death was old age. The late Mrs Wilson suffered from Paralysis and had been confined to her bed for close on two years preceding her death. Mr Wilson was bedridden for about five years. There were thirteen children issues of marriage of whom six sons and five daughters survived. The funeral took place on Monday last.
